Sovereign All Creating Mind the Motherly Buddha:

The Sovereign All-Creating Mind - The Motherly Buddha Eva K. Neumaier-Dargyay, 1992-01-01 What distinguishes this Buddhist text from so many others is the timelessness of its ideas It constitutes a radical attempt toward deconstructing Buddhist philosophy and presents a feminist perspective on Buddhist spirituality The text holds that being is the center and depth of existence and is therefore accessible in everyday experience The fleeting existence samsara is in its depth being i e a state of complete integration nirvana which may well be described as divine reality of a feminine dimension This book presents the first English translation of an eighth century Tibetan Buddhist text Despite its centuries old origin the kun byed rgyal po i mdo addresses themes of great concern to the present including how to achieve a holistic world view that integrates the peripheral nature of existence with the ground of being and the interrelatedness of periphery and center of individual and universe From a contemporary viewpoint this can be seen to engender a feminist understanding of the ground of being Unlike other Buddhist texts the kun byed rgyal po i mdo invites the reader to rejoice in this world as beautified and intelligible and thus the innate purity of the intelligent potency the motherly Buddha will be experienced In addition to the translation the book also includes a discussion of the conceptual and historical contexts of the text an examination of its leading ideas and an assessment of the challenges related to the translation

The Sovereign All-creating Mind. The Motherly Buddha Eva K. Dargyay, 1992 Buddhism, Christianity and the Question of Creation Perry

Schmidt-Leukel, 2016-12-05 Is the world created by a divine creator Or is it the constant product of karmic forces The issue of creation was at the heart of the classic controversies between Buddhism and Hindu Theism In modern times it can be found at the centre of many polemical debates between Buddhism and Christianity Is this the principal barrier that separates Buddhism from Christianity and other theistic religions The contributions to Part One explore the various aspects of traditional and contemporary Buddhist objections against the idea of a divine creator as well as Christian possibilities to meet the Buddhist critique Part Two asks for the potential truth on both sides and suggests a surprising way that the barrier might be overcome This opens a new round of philosophical and theological dialogue between these two major traditions with challenging insights for both Contributors Jos I Cabezn John P Keenan Armin Kreiner Aasulv Lande John D Arcy May Eva K Neumaier Perry Schmidt Leukel Ernst Steinkellner

Dharma David Germano, Kevin Trainor, 2012-02-01 Embodying the Dharma explores the centrality of relic veneration in Asian

Buddhist cultures Long disregarded by Western scholars as a superstitious practice reflecting the popularization of original Buddhism relic veneration has emerged as a topic of vital interest in the last two decades with the increased attention to Buddhist ritual practice and material culture This volume includes studies of relic traditions in India Japan Tibet Sri Lanka and Thailand as well as broader comparative analyses including comparisons of Buddhist and Christian relic veneration

The Buddha's Doctrine and the Nine Vehicles Jose Ignacio Cabezon, 2013-01-31 This book offers a study of the life and most important extant work of Rog Bande Sherab also known as Rogben 1166 1244 Rogben devoted his life to collecting important textual cycles and meditation techniques Rogben s most important work The Lamp of the Teachings cuts across the genres of history doctrinal studies and doxography philosophically robust explanations of the nine vehicle system of the Ancient or Nyingma school of Tibetan Buddhism

A History of Buddhism in India and Tibet, 2022-07-19 This volume contains the first full English translation of a thirteenth century history of Buddhism in India and Tibet That means most of all a complete life of the Buddha with the history of his renunciate order and of early Buddhist authors in India Midway through the action moves to Tibet where there is an emphasis on the Tibetan ruling dynasty the translators of Buddhist texts and the lineages that transmitted doctrinal understanding meditative insights and practical realization It concludes with a pessimistic account of the demise of the monastic order followed by optimism with the advent of the future Buddha Maitreya The composer of this remarkably ecumenical Buddhist history remains anonymous but was likely a follower of rare lineages of Dzogchen and Zhij e teachings He put together some of the most important early sources on the Tibetan imperial period that had been preserved in his times and supplies the best witnesses we have for many of them in our own times

Teaching Mysticism William B. Parsons, 2011-12-16 The term mysticism has never been consistently defined or employed either in religious traditions or in academic discourse The essays in this volume offer ways of defining what mysticism is as well as methods for grappling with its complexity in a classroom This volume addresses the diverse literature surrounding mysticism in four interrelated parts The first part includes essays on the tradition and context of mysticism devoted to drawing out and examining the mystical element in many religious traditions The second part engages traditions and religio cultural strands in which mysticism is linked to other terms such as shamanism esotericism and Gnosticism The volume s third part focuses on methodological strategies for defining mysticism with respect to varying social spaces The final essays show how contemporary social issues and movements have impacted the meaning study and pedagogy of mysticism Teaching Mysticism presents pedagogical reflections on how best to communicate mysticism from a variety of institutional spaces It surveys the broad range of meanings of mysticism its utilization in the traditions the theories and methods that have been used to understand it and provides critical insight into the resulting controversies

The Supreme Source Chogyal Namkhai Norbu, Andriano Clemente, 1999-05-01 The aim of Dzogchen is the reawakening of the individual to the primordial state of enlightenment which is naturally found in all beings The master introduces the student to his or her real nature already perfected and enlightened but it is only by recognizing this nature and remaining in this state of recognition in all daily activities that the student becomes a real Dzogchen practitioner of the direct path of self liberation In this book the Dzogchen teaching is presented through the tantra Kunjed Gyalpo or The King Who Creates Everything a personification of the primordial state of enlightenment This tantra is the fundamental scripture of the Semde or Nature of Mind tradition of Dzogchen and is the most authoritative source for understanding the Dzogchen view The commentary by Chogyal Namkhai Norbu gives easier insight into the depths of these teachings Adriano Clemente translated the main selections of the original tantra
