Children's Literature of the Harlem Renaissance Katharine Capshaw Smith, 2004-07-05 The Harlem Renaissance the period associated with the flowering of the arts in Harlem inaugurated a tradition of African American children s literature for the movement s central writers made youth both their subject and audience W E B Du Bois Carter G Woodson Langston Hughes Alice Dunbar Nelson and other Harlem Renaissance figures took an impassioned interest in the literary models offered to children believing that the New Negro would ultimately arise from black youth As a result African American children s literature became a crucial medium through which a disparate community forged bonds of cultural economic and aesthetic solidarity Kate Capshaw Smith explores the period s vigorous exchange about the nature and identity of black childhood and uncovers the networks of African American philosophers community activists schoolteachers and literary artists who worked together to transmit black history and culture to the next generation

Harlem Renaissance Ella O Williams, 2008-07-07 PRIOR TO THE HARLEM RENAISSANCE BLACKS PORTRAY THEMSELVES AS STRANGS OBJECTS ALIENATED FROM OTHERS IN THE SOCIETY The social activities in literature art theatre and entertainment in Harlem Renaissance a Handbook are documented for the period 1910 1940 A few intellectuals specifically James Weldon Johnson W E B DuBois Charles Johnson and Alain Locke perceive that they themselves are the New Negro Thus they produce and record the visual arts literature and music they personally create as well as that of younger literary artists Langston Hughes Arna Bontemps Countee Cullen and Roland Hayes The literature scholarship and criticism created among these intellectuals are mainly responsible for bringing about a renaissance What is so unique about the Harlem Renaissance is that it is totally perceived and criticized by white American literary standards At no time in African American history has there been an era wherein self proclaimed intellectuals record their own literary activities as they are being created That single concept is the focus of the research in Harlem Renaissance a Handbook Identifying each Major and Other Figures of the Harlem Renaissance permits the reader to experience the life and time of the era The influx of African American literature requires the need to study the artists and to document the literary and creative arts of the Harlem Renaissance. View the photos and read the biography of the intellectuals as they live through an era devoted to illuminating Negro life as it actually exists in America. Most helpful to the reader is the Chronology of literary arts and corresponding activities of the Harlem Renaissance. During the years 1910-1940 the titles of articles, theatrical productions, books, poetry, music, visual arts, and literature created during this period have been documented. The items chosen for the Chronology are not exhaustive but they represent nearly all the literature and activities created during the Harlem Renaissance. Harlem Renaissance a Handbook is a journey through time wherein literary and artistic history is documented as it occurs. With the aid of local New York Publishing companies, intellectuals encourage younger literary artists to publish only Negro folk life and culture as it actually exists. The Harlem Renaissance, 2001. This book includes short stories, novel excerpts, poems, plays, essays, and other documents by both famous and lesser known authors. Back cover: The Harlem Renaissance and the Idea of a New Negro Reader Shawn Anthony Christian, 2016. Introduction: The New Negro is reading. Creating critical frameworks: three models for the New Negro Reader. In search of Black writers and readers. Crisis: s and Opportunity: s literary contests. Beyond the New Negro: artistry, audience, and the Harlem Renaissance. literary anthology. Pedagogy for critical readership. James Weldon Johnson's English 123. Epilogue: On African American writers and readers. Realism in the Novels of the Harlem Renaissance Theodore O. Francis, 2002. The novelists of the Harlem Renaissance began writing at a point in America's literary history when the romantic tradition was being set aside for the gutsy truth telling of realist literature. Modern criticism seems to take the flowery nineteenth century prose found in the works of Chesnut, Dunbar, Du Bois, and others as an indication that they were writing in the romantic style. This is understandable but flawed. Almost all of the stories written during the Renaissance contained references to slavery or to Post Reconstructionist violence. For that reason, few stories stemming from this period and written by African Americans can be said to be romantic. A Companion to the Harlem Renaissance Cherene Sherrard-Johnson, 2015-05-26. Offers a variety of interdisciplinary features such as the section on visual and expressive arts that emphasize the collaborative nature of the era.
