The Healing Musician A Guide To Playing Healing Music At The Bedside:

The Healing Musician Stella Benson,1999-01-01 The American Book of Living and Dying Richard F.

Groves, Henriette Anne Klauser,2015-12-16 For most people the thought of dying or caring for a terminally ill friend or family member raises fears and questions as old as humanity What is a good death What appropriate preparations should be made How do we best support our loved ones as life draws to its close In this nondenominational handbook Richard F Groves and Henriette Anne Klauser provide comfort direction and hope to the dying and their caregivers through nine archetypal stories that illustrate the most common end of life concerns Drawing from personal experiences the authors offer invaluable guidance on easing emotional pain and navigating this difficult final passage With a compelling new preface this edition also features an overview of the hospice movement a survey of Celtic Tibetan Egyptian and other historic perspectives on the sacred art of dying as well as various therapies techniques and rituals to alleviate suffering stimulate reflection and strengthen interpersonal bonds The American Book of Living and Dying gives us courage to trust our deepest instincts and reminds us that by telling the stories of those who have passed we remember honor and continue to learn from them

Death the Door, Music a Key Ba. Mus. Hons. Sciberras,2012-03-01 Death the Door Music a Key is an invitation to join a journey that is not always easy but might just alter the way you think about how you live your life The journey begins in the fragile moments just before life ends as we sit beside the deathbed and seek to understand this sacred process through the eyes of a harpist This book of stories tells of ordinary people in the midst of extraordinary moments people experiencing grief loss and the anticipation of death For the most part however it is the story of the author who followed a calling to sit with the dying and share her music It paints a picture of the work that I do as a harpist who plays intuitive music at the bedside the restorative qualities of the harp and the gift that it brings many It is my hope that through telling these stories not only will the lives of those who I have played for be honoured but also their death It is my hope that their story will serve as a reminder to others that this experience does not have to be frightening though it requires acceptance and acceptance requires courage This acceptance of death can be rarely found and when it is it is unmistakable for their peace seems to permeate everything and everyone around them Folk Harp Journal ,2004 Early Music America ,2002 Directory of Members Early Music America (Organization),2003 Textbook of Palliative Care Roderick Duncan MacLeod,Lieve Van den Block,2025-02-25 This second edition provides the most up to date information on all aspects of palliative care including recent developments including COVID 19 global policies service provision symptom management professional aspects organization of services palliative care for specific populations palliative care emergencies ethical issues in palliative care research in palliative care public health approaches and financial aspects of care This new Textbook of Palliative Care remains a unique comprehensive clinically relevant and state of the art book aimed at advancing palliative care as a science a clinical practice and as an art Palliative care has been part of healthcare for over fifty years but it still needs to explained to many Healthcare education and training has been slow to recognize the vital importance of ensuring that all practitioners have a good understanding of what is involved in the care of people with serious or advanced illnesses and their families However the science of palliative care is advancing and this new edition will contribute to a better understanding This new edition offers 86 updated or new chapters out of 108 written by experts in their given fields providing up to date information on a wide range of topics of relevance to those providing care towards the end of life no matter what the disease may be We present a global perspective on contemporary and classic issues in palliative care with authors from a wide range of disciplines involved in this essential aspect of care The Textbook includes sections addressing aspects such as symptom management and care provision organization of care in different settings care in specific disease groups palliative care emergencies ethics public health approaches and research in palliative care This new Textbook will be of value to practitioners in all disciplines and professions where the care of people approaching death is important specialists as well as non specialists in any setting where people with serious advanced illnesses are residing It is also an important resource for researchers policy and decision makers at national or regional levels Neither the science nor the art of palliative care will stand still so the Editors and contributors from all over the world aim to keep this Textbook updated so that the reader can find new evidence and approaches to care
