

LOUIS L'AMOUR

THE HIGH GRADERS

A Novel

The background of the lower half of the cover is a photograph of two riders on horseback, seen from behind, splashing through shallow water. The water is dark and turbulent, with large white splashes trailing behind the horses. The riders are wearing dark clothing, and the scene is set in a natural, possibly marshy, environment under a dark sky.

Widespread racism in America and instances of gross incompetence on the part of inexperienced camp administrators resulted in mistrust and misunderstanding. This led to ruined lives and the irreparable fracturing of the closely knit Japanese American community, leaving scars that have never healed. There was also needless pain and suffering when the camps were suddenly closed and some of the last residents of the camps, mostly the elderly, were evicted, leaving them homeless, jobless, and virtually penniless.
