Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance Peter McLaren, 2022-03-28 This collection of essays incorporates some of the most important and longstanding foundational texts in education developed by the leading educational neo Gramscian social theorist Peter McLaren The volume provides a much necessary framework for understanding more precisely not only the historical and philosophical foundations for McLaren's ideas but even more importantly it unpacks a clear understanding of the dynamics of ideological production framing the epistemicidal nature of capitalist schools The chapters provide state of the art approaches grounded in both Marxist social theory and post critical sensibilities They show the unique opportunities provided by critical theoretical approaches towards revolutionary pedagogies which are crucial to address the current challenges one is facing locally nationally and internationally Critical Theory Rituals Pedagogies and Resistance speaks to the current challenges we face as humanity not only situating them historically but also securitizing the role that our educational institutions curriculum matrixes and teacher education programs have played in such social havoc It provides crucial insights not only to help a better understanding of the accomplishments produced by the critical educational and curriculum river in the struggle against the educational and curriculum epistemicide but also to help explore alternative ways responsive to the world's endless epistemological difference and diversity While the future of our field needs to go beyond Peter McLaren's intellectual thesaurus it cannot certainly avoid going through him The itinerant curriculum theory and the ICTheorists are conscious about that Jo o M Paraskeva Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies University of Strathclyde

Dignity of the Calling Andrew T. Kemp, 2018-10-01 The purpose of this Dignity of the Calling is to share other stories of faculty entry into higher education

These stories focus on the deeply personal nature of the new academic. Framed around the idea of curriculum being contextual and how life experience guides what we do, this collection of memoirs, recollections, and personal narratives allows the reader to share these lived experiences. Although I was a teacher prior to entering the professoriate, I was not ready for the gargantuan professional and personal transition to higher education. I was not prepared for minutiae of forms, deadlines of inter-office programs, personalities, and most of all, for the human and sometimes illogical relationships among colleagues. I was caught off-guard by the nuanced thinking of students and most of all, I was at times overwhelmed by the time constraints of research, teaching, and service on me and my family. However, I survived and I believe I thrived in my small slice of the academic world.
