

The painting is a close-up, intimate scene. A woman with dark hair, wearing a dark hat, is shown from the chest up, her face partially visible as she looks down at a child. The child, with light brown hair, is lying down, their head resting against the woman's chest. The woman's hand is visible, gently holding the child. The background is a soft, light blue-green color. The overall style is characteristic of Impressionism, with visible brushstrokes and a focus on light and color.
