Return to Fitness Bill Katovsky, 2011-01-22 Bill Katovsky was a two-time Hawaii Ironman finisher, a guy who bicycled solo across the U.S., an endurance athlete who competed in a three-day race, mountain bike race across Costa Rica. But through a series of misfortunes including depression, losing his dog, death in his family and debilitating health problems, Katovsky went from being a multisport junkie to complete couch potato. He stopped working out. For almost ten years. By the time he hit fifty, he decided it was time for a change. How he fought his way back to fitness is not only a riveting, brutally honest and ultimately inspiring story, it is also a hands-on guide to help anyone reclaim health and well-being. Katovsky supplements his personal story with those of others successfully making a return to fitness: an astronaut who spent five months in space, a former Wall Street trader who lost seventy-five pounds and became Hawaii's Fittest CEO, a retired two-time world champion Hawaii Ironman triathlete with a bum hip that needed replacing, a Yosemite park employee who broke her spine in a hiking accident and is now back on the trails, and a sixty-something business educator who's had six heart bypasses but still backpacks and goes to the gym. With the advice of personal trainers, fitness experts and multisport coaches, Katovsky offers a wealth of useful information including Diet and nutrition, what you need to know for a healthy body, How aging, body fat and motivation affect physical and mental health, and why exercise is good for depression. Successfully building a proper aerobic and strength base, workouts you can do at home, Tips for injury prevention from avoiding overtraining to why stretching isn't recommended.
