value in the hands of users fast Get the right people involved from sponsors to grass roots Make collaboration pay in the right currency whether recognition rewards or revenue Today companies and managers face unique challenges and opportunities in reaching out to others thanks to the incredibly connected world in which we live Bratton and Tumin provide practical strategies anyone can use from the cubicle to the boardroom This is the ultimate guide to getting things done in today's networked world

Three Ways to Capsize a Boat Chris Stewart, 2010-05-25 Three Ways to Capsize a Boat is travel writing at its best crackling with Chris Stewart's zest for life irresistible humor and unerring lack of foresight Chris Stewart had a long and eclectic list of jobs From some of the most glamorous careers he was original drummer in Genesis to the more offbeat a sheep shearer and circus performer he had done it all or almost all So when he is offered the chance to captain a sailboat in the Greek islands one summer something he had never done before he jumped at the chance even though he'd never actually sailed before So begins the hilarious and wild adventures of Three Ways to Capsize a Boat From setting the boat on fire not once but several times in the Aegean Sea to his not so grand arrival in Spetses to meet the owners of the boat who says it isn't graceful to plow into the docks as a means of coming to a stop Stewart quickly catches the sailing bug By the end of the summer as he is facing the dreary prospect of going back to sheep shearing he jumps at the chance to be part of a crew to follow Viking Leif Eiriksson's historic journey across the Atlantic Ocean From coming to terms with the long cold nights at sea and unchanging cuisine to battling intense seasickness and managing to go to the bathroom during a massive storm a lot harder than you'd think Stewart keeps his good humor but learns in the end that perhaps the best things in life are worth coming ashore for Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1977 The Quest for Fitness Mark Michaels, 2000-12 The Quest for Fitness A rational exploration into the new science of organizations follows the tradition of Frederick Taylor and W Edwards Deming by rationally applying scientific principles and processes to understanding the nature of organization The book recognizes that the environment has changed drastically since Taylor applied Newtonian principles to describe the industrial organization The synthesis forces the reader to change his her view from considering how an organization can be created to take control of its environment to how one can be created to survive over time in a changing environment The Quest for Fitness leaves the reader with a vision of organizations as complex adaptive organisms striving to stay fit on an ever changing landscape There is an ongoing search to optimize one s position in an uncharted wilderness Survival is not dependent upon the strongest but upon the ability to adapt as the landscape changes The leaders of such organizations are no longer commanders but explorers who create network infrastructures enabling information to be received integrated and shared throughout the organization so that individual parts can best respond to immediate conditions without the total system flying apart

Complex Adaptive Leadership Nick Obolensky, 2024-11-01 Since its publication Complex Adaptive Leadership has become a Gower bestseller that has been taught in corporate leadership programmes business schools and universities around the world to high acclaim In this updated paperback edition Nick Obolensky argues that leadership should not be something only exercised by nominated leaders It is a complex dynamic process involving all those engaged in a particular enterprise The theoretical background to this lies in complexity science and chaos theory spoken and written about in the context of leadership for the last 20 years but still little understood We all seem intuitively to know leadership isn't what it used to be but we still cling to old assumptions which look anachronistic in changing and challenging times Nick Obolensky has practised researched and taught leadership in the public private and voluntary sectors In this exciting book he brings together his knowledge of theory his own experience and the results of 19 years of research involving 2 500 executives in 40 countries around the world The main conclusion from that research is that the more complex things become the less traditional directive leadership is needed Those operating in the real world nonetheless need ways of coping The book is focused on helping practitioners struggling to interpret and react to increasingly VUCA Volatile Uncertain Complex Ambiguous times The book will particularly appeal to practitioners wishing to improve their leadership effectiveness as well as for students and researchers in the field of leadership

Possibility of Long Range Precipitation Forecasting for the Hawaiian Islands Samuel B. Solot, 1948 In order to establish a meteorological forecasting system it is necessary to find a direct relationship between measurable physical states of the atmosphere and the end product the weather element to be forecast The long range forecaster is quite limited in his choice of physical parameters In fact only the very large scale dynamics of the atmosphere which can be expressed in terms of mean pressure patterns are amenable to long range analysis Thus the problem reduces to finding a link between mean planetary pressure patterns and precipitation in the Hawaiian Islands
