Sniffing The Cork:

Sniffing the Cork Judy Beardsall, 2002 Comprehensive hands on and conversationally written this book is a user friendly and entertaining guide to ordering buying and collecting wine from a trailblazing wine expert Everything You Pretend to Know And Are Afraid Someone Will Ask Lynette Padwa, 1996-04-01 You can fool some of the people all of the time but wouldn't you rather really know what you're talking about Why are conservatives on the right and liberals on the left What is an archetype Most people drop these and other cultural references in conversation all the time without really knowing much about them But with this witty information packed book you can quickly bone up on the actual facts behind the multitude of data events and words that come at you each day and that you've been casually bandying about without really understanding Here are invaluable explanations of a wide range of topics that are assumed to be common knowledge from deciphering newsspeak What is a spin doctor to psychobabble What's the difference between the ego and the id to cyberlingo What is cyberlingo from the supposedly obvious What makes cholesterol good or bad to the deceptively simple What is a formula race car Perfect as a quick reference tool for browsing or simply for sharing impressive newfound knowledge with family and friends this handbook will endow you with genuine cultural literacy in just a few hours of fun filled reading Tampa Bay Magazine, 1997-11 Tampa Bay Magazine is the area's lifestyle magazine For over 25 years it has been featuring the places people and pleasures of Tampa Bay Florida that includes Tampa Clearwater and St Petersburg You won't know Tampa Bay until you read Tampa Bay Magazine Revelations in Air Jude Stewart, 2021-10-26 An extraordinary strange and startlingly beautiful exploration of smell the least understood of our five senses The nose on your face is the Buckingham Palace Guard of your body the maitre d' of all taste as well as the seducer of your imagination and memory and Jude Stewart has charmed them all into a wicked poetic and illuminating tour of their mysterious domains Jack Hitt author of Bunch of Amateurs Overlapping with taste yet larger in scope smell is the sense that comes closest to pure perception Smell can collapse space and time unlocking memories and transporting us to worlds both new and familiar Yet as clearly as each of us can recognize different smells the bright tang of citrus freshly sharpened pencils parched earth after rain few of us understand how and why we smell In Revelations in Air Jude Stewart takes us on a fascinating journey into the weird and wonderful world of smell Beginning with lessons on the incredible biology and history of how our noses work Stewart teaches us how to use our noses like experts Once we're properly equipped and ready to sniff Stewart explores a range of smells from lavender cut grass and hot chocolate to cannabis and old books using smell as a lens into art history science and more With an engaging colorful design and exercises for readers to refine their own skills Revelations in Air goes beyond science or history or chemistry it's a doorway into the surprising pleasurable and unfamiliar landscape of smell Planet of the Grapes Robert Sechrist, 2017-04-24 A fascinating and comprehensive introduction to the geography culture and history of wine that identifies the significance of this simple beverage throughout human history and today Wine was one the key founding foods of Western culture bread and oil being the other two It has played a key role in human history for thousands of years having been used for enjoyment rituals and religious purposes today the production and consumption of wine is a billion dollar industry that plays an important role in the global economy Planet of the Grapes A Geography of Wine provides an interesting and accessible lens through which students can learn about geography culture society history religion and the environment The chapters cover the historical geography of wine document how drinking wine has often been condemned as a vice and describe wines by region and type thereby providing a cultural geography of wine Readers will learn about the historical geography of wine terroir the environmental conditions that affect grape crops grape biogeography the process of winemaking from a geographic perspective the economic global significance of the wine trade the ongoing love hate relationship between wine and government and what makes individual wine regions distinct The content is written to be comprehensible to individuals without detailed previous knowledge about wine but provides detailed information and insight that wine connoisseurs will find engaging Additionally through the story of wine comes a unique telling of the social transformations in America that have resulted from sources such as anti immigrant sentiment pseudoscience and censorship

What Einstein Told His Cook Robert L. Wolke, 2010-06-21 Finalist for the James Beard Foundation Book Award and the IACP Cookbook Award. A good read on the science of cooking as there is Mark Bittman author of How to Cook Everything. Wolke, longtime professor of chemistry and author of the Washington Post column Food 101, turns his hand to a Cecil Adams style compendium of questions and answers on food chemistry. Is there really a difference between supermarket and sea salt? How is sugar made? Should cooks avoid aluminum pans? Interspersed throughout Wolke's accessible and humorous answers to these and other mysteries are recipes demonstrating scientific principles. There is gravy that avoids lumps and grease Portuguese Poached Meringue that demonstrates cream of tartar at work and juicy Salt Seared Burgers. With its zest for the truth this book will help cooks learn how to make more intelligent choices. Publishers Weekly
