The book is based on more than 300 interviews with top corporate executives from around the world and across a wide variety of industries, hundreds of surveys and over 60 years of combined experience. Top executives will find this book helpful in determining how they can ensure that their firm has the right quality and quantity of global leaders it needs to capture the global growth opportunities before them.

Global Explorers J. Stewart Black, Allen J. Morrison, Hal B. Gregersen, 2013-10-18. In this age of globalization challenges from economic uncertainty to emerging markets, there are no mapped-out answers for the international manager. Global Explorers guides the global manager from the periphery to the center stage of international business leadership. In a 1997 survey of Fortune 500 firms conducted by authors J. Stewart Black, Allen J. Morrison, and Hal B. Gregersen, virtually all companies indicated there was a severe shortage of global leaders. The demand for competent global leaders far outstrips the supply. Global Explorers provides the skills and outlines the competencies future global managers need to fill the leadership gap. Using extensive research, real-life examples, and 130 in-depth interviews with senior executives representing 50 global companies including IBM, Disney, Exxon, and Sony, Global Explorers suggests the reasons for the global leadership shortage and identifies the necessary skills to compete in the international marketplace. For managers who want to safeguard their corporate future in these changing times, Global Explorers will help them develop a personal program for developing and balancing the skills they need to become successful global leaders.
