Martin Krampen, Klaus Oehler, Roland Posner, Thomas A. Sebeok, Thure von Uexküll, 2013-06-29 This book is designed to usher the reader into the realm of semiotic studies It analyzes the most important approaches to semiotics as they have developed over the last hundred years out of philosophy linguistics psychology and biology As a science of sign processes semiotics investigates all types of communication and information exchange among human beings animals plants internal systems of organisms and machines Thus it encompasses most of the subject areas of the arts and the social sciences as well as those of biology and medicine Semiotic inquiry into the conditions functions and structures of sign processes is older than any scientific discipline As a result it is able to make the underlying unity of these disciplines apparent once again without impairing their function as specializations Semiotics is above all research into the theoretical foundations of sign oriented disciplines that is it is General Semiotics Under the name of Zeichenlehre it has been pursued in the German speaking countries since the age of the Enlightenment During the nineteenth century the systematic inquiry into the functioning of signs was superseded by historical investigations into the origins of signs This opposition was overcome in the first half of the twentieth century by American Semiotics as well as by various directions of European structuralism working in the tradition of Semiology Present day General Semiotics builds on all these developments Remembering the Cold War David Lowe, Tony Joel, 2014-01-21

Remembering the Cold War examines how more than two decades since the collapse of the Soviet Union Cold War legacies continue to play crucial roles in defining national identities and shaping international relations around the globe Given the Cold War's blurred definition it has neither a widely accepted commencement date nor unanimous conclusion what is to be remembered This book illustrates that there is in fact a huge body of remembrance and that it is more pertinent to ask what should be included and what can be overlooked Over five sections this richly illustrated volume considers case studies of Cold War remembering from different parts of the world and engages with growing theorisation in the field of memory studies specifically in relation to war David Lowe and Tony Joel afford careful consideration to agencies that identify with being victims of the Cold War In addition the concept of arenas of articulation which envelops the myriad spaces in which the remembering commemorating memorialising and even revising of Cold War history takes place is given prominence
