Soundtracks Popular Music Identity And Place:

Sound Tracks John Connell, Chris Gibson, 2003 Sound Tracks is the first comprehensive book on the new geography of popular music examining the complex links between places music and cultural identities It provides an interdisciplinary perspective on local national and global scenes from the Mersey and Icelandic sounds to world music and explores the diverse meanings of music in a range of regional contexts In a world of intensified globalisation links between space music and identity are increasingly tenuous yet places give credibility to music not least in the country and music is commonly linked to place as a stake to originality a claim to tradition and as a marketing device This book develops new perspectives on these relationships and how they are situated within cultural and geographical thought

Sound, Society and the Geography of Popular Music Dr Ola Johansson, Professor Thomas L Bell, 2012-11-28 Popular music is a cultural form much rooted in space and place This book interprets the meaning of music from a spatial perspective and in doing so it furthers our understanding of broader social relations and trends including identity attachment to place cultural economies social activism and politics The book's editors have brought together a team of scholars to discuss the latest innovative thinking on music and its geographies illustrated with a fascinating range of case studies from the USA Canada the Caribbean Australia and Great Britain

Sound, Society and the Geography of Popular Music Thomas L. Bell, 2016-04-01 Popular music is a cultural form much rooted in space and place This book interprets the meaning of music from a spatial perspective and in doing so it furthers our understanding of broader social relations and trends including identity attachment to place cultural economies social activism and politics The book's editors have brought together a team of scholars to discuss the latest innovative thinking on music and its geographies illustrated with a fascinating range of case studies from the USA Canada the Caribbean Australia and Great Britain

The Future of Live Music Ewa Mazierska, Les Gillon, Tony Rigg, 2020-05-14 What live music means for one generation or culture does not necessarily mean live for another This book examines how changes in economy culture and technology pertaining to post digital times affect production performance and reception of live music Considering established examples of live music such as music festivals alongside practices influenced by developments in technology including live streaming and holograms the book examines whether new forms stand the test of live authenticity for their audiences It also speculates how live music might develop in the future its relationship to recorded music and mediated performance and how business is conducted in the popular music industry

Ambiance, Tourism and the City Iñigo Sánchez-Fuarros, Daniel Paiva, Daniel Malet Calvo, 2023-04-28 Ambiance Tourism and the City considers how tourism and urban development affect the lived ambiances of contemporary cities around the world As most of the existing literature on sensory atmospheres says little about the intersection between tourism and atmospheric production this book affirms the centrality of the notion of ambiance as a mode of inquiry into the making and remaking of urban places for tourist consumption The book takes the reader into the sensory worlds of a traditional Italian marketplace a jungle park in Kuala

Lumpur a slum in the Colombian city of Medell n or the sun and sand tourism destinations in Southern Spain among other case studies It offers new insights into the impact of tourism on the urban environment from multidisciplinary perspectives and a wide range of geographical regions across Europe North America Asia and South America Through these contemporary case studies the book further deepens our understanding of the ways in which ambiances and atmospheres pervade the physical regeneration and sensory transformation of contemporary tourist destinations Conversely this book offers insights on the effects of tourism on everyday urban experience By bringing together a diverse group of scholars and case studies to present a global perspective on the atmospheric production of the tourist city this book is to serve as a valuable reference tool for researchers and undergraduate and postgraduate students with an interest in urban ambiances tourism cultural geography and urban planning Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Necessity of Music Celia Applegate, 2017-05-08 In The Necessity of Music Celia Applegate explores the many ways that Germans thought about and made music from the eighteenth to twentieth centuries Rather than focus on familiar stories of composers and their work Applegate illuminates the myriad ways in which music is integral to German social life Musical life reflected the polycentric nature of German social and political life even while it provided many opportunities to experience what was common among Germans Musical activities also allowed Germans whether professional musicians dedicated amateurs or simply listeners to participate in European culture Applegate's original and fascinating analysis of Mendelssohn Schumann Brahms Wagner and military music enables the reader to understand music through the experiences of listeners performers and institutions The Necessity of Music demonstrates that playing experiencing and interpreting music was a powerful factor that shaped German collective life

Mapping Cultures L. Roberts, 2012-05-29 An interdisciplinary collection exploring the practices and cultures of mapping in the arts humanities and social sciences It features contributions from scholars in critical cartography social anthropology film and cultural studies literary studies art and visual culture marketing museum studies architecture and popular music studies

In The Space Of A Song Richard Dyer, 2013-07-03 Songs take up space and time in films Richard Dyer's In the Space of a Song takes off from this perception arguing that the way songs take up space indicates a great deal about the songs themselves the nature of the feelings they present and who is allowed to present feelings how when and where In the Space of a Song explores this perception through a range of examples from classic MGM musicals to blaxploitation cinema with the career of Lena Horne providing a turning point in the cultural dynamics of the feeling Chapters include The perfection of Meet Me in St Louis A Star Is Born and the construction of authenticity I seem to find the happiness I seek Heterosexuality and dance in the musical The space of happiness in the musical Singing prettily Lena Horne in Hollywood Is Car Wash a musical Music and presence in blaxploitation cinema In the Space of a Song is ideal for both scholars and students of film studies
