Sources Of Chinese Tradition Vol 2 From 1600 Through The Twentieth Century:

Sources of Chinese Tradition Wm. Theodore De Bary, Richard Lufrano, 2001-04-18 For four decades Sources of Chinese Tradition has served to introduce Western readers to Chinese civilization as it has been seen through basic writings and historical documents of the Chinese themselves. Now in its second edition, revised and extended through Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Zemin era China, this classic volume remains unrivaled for its wide selection of source readings on history, society, and thought in the world's largest nation. Award-winning China scholar Wm. Theodore de Bary, who edited the first edition in 1960, and his coeditor Richard Lufrano have revised and updated the second volume of Sources to reflect the interactions of ideas, institutions, and historical events from the seventeenth century up to the present day. Beginning with Qing civilization and continuing to contemporary times, volume II brings together key source texts from more than three centuries of Chinese history, with opening essays by noted China authorities providing context for readers not familiar with the period in question. Here are just a few of the topics covered in this second volume of Sources of Chinese Tradition: Early Sino-Western contacts in the seventeenth century; Four centuries of Chinese reflections on differences between Eastern and Western civilizations; Nineteenth and twentieth century reform movements with treatises on women's rights, modern science, and literary reform; Controversies over the place of Confucianism in modern Chinese society; The nationalist revolution including readings from Sun Yat-sen and Chiang Kai-shek; The communist revolution with central writings by Mao Zedong; Works from contemporary China featuring political essays from Deng Xiaoping and dissidents including Wei Jingsheng. With more than two hundred selections in lucid, readable translation by today's most renowned experts on Chinese language and civilization, Sources of Chinese Tradition will continue to be recognized as the standard for source readings on Chinese civilization, an indispensable learning tool for scholars and students of Asian civilizations.

Sources of Chinese Tradition Wm. Theodore De Bary, Irene Bloom, 1999-07-27 A collection of seminal primary readings on the social, intellectual, and religious traditions of China, Sources of Chinese Tradition Volume 1 has been widely used and praised for almost forty years as an authoritative resource for scholars and students and as a thorough and engaging introduction for general readers. Here at last is a completely revised and expanded edition of this classic sourcebook, compiled by noted China scholars Wm. Theodore de Bary and Irene Bloom. Updated to reflect recent scholarly developments with extensive material on popular thought and religion, social roles, and women's education, this edition features new translations of more than half the works from the first edition, as well as many new selections. Arranged chronologically, this anthology is divided into four parts, beginning at the dawn of literate Chinese civilization with the Oracle Bone inscriptions of the late Shang dynasty (1571-1045 B.C.E.) and continuing through the end of the Ming dynasty (C.E. 1644). Each chapter has an introduction that provides useful historical context and offers interpretive strategies for understanding the readings. The first part, The Chinese Tradition in Antiquity, considers the early development of Chinese civilization and includes selections from Confucius's Analects, the texts of Mencius and Laozi, as well as other key texts from the Confucian Daoist and Legalist schools Part 2 The Making of a Classical Culture focuses on Han China with readings from the Classic of Changes I Jing the Classic of Filiality major Han syntheses and the great historians of the Han dynasty The development of Buddhism from the earliest translations from Sanskrit to the central texts of the Chan school which became Zen in Japan is the subject of the third section of the book Titled Later Daoism and Mahayana Buddhism in China this part also covers the teachings of Wang Bi Daoist religion and texts of the major schools of Buddhist doctrine and practice The final part The Confucian Revival and Neo Confucianism details the revival of Confucian thought in the Tang Song and Ming periods with historical documents that link philosophical thought to political social and educational developments in late imperial China With annotations a detailed chronology glossary and a new introduction by the editors Sources of Chinese Tradition will continue to be a standard resource guidebook and introduction to Chinese civilization well into the twenty first century

New Confucianism in Twenty-First Century China Jesús

Solé-Farràs,2013-11-20 This book explores how Confucian thought which was the ideological underpinning of traditional imperial China is being developed and refined into a New Confucianism relevant for the twenty first century It traces the development of Confucian thought examines significant new texts and shows how New Confucianism relates to various spheres of life how it informs views on key philosophical issues and how it affects personal conduct Starting by exploring the philosophical and ideological principles of New Confucianism the book goes on to explain how New Confucianism is a collective process of continuous creation and recreation an incessant and evolving discourse It argues that New Confucianism unlike its earlier manifestation is more accommodating of a plurality of ideologies in the world and that understanding Confucianism and how it is developing is essential for understanding contemporary China Gadamer and Ricoeur Francis J. Mootz III,George H. Taylor,2011-04-14 Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur were two of the most important hermeneutical philosophers of the twentieth century Gadamer single handedly revived hermeneutics as a philosophical field with his many essays and his masterpiece Truth and Method Ricoeur famously mediated the Gadamer Habermas debate and advanced his own hermeneutical philosophy through a number of books addressing social theory religion psychoanalysis and political philosophy This book brings Gadamer and Ricoeur into a hermeneutical conversation with each other through some of their most important commentators Twelve leading scholars deliver contemporary assessments of the history and promise of hermeneutical philosophy providing focused discussion on the work of these two key hermeneutical thinkers The book shows how the horizons of their thought at once support and question each other and how in many ways the work of these two pioneering philosophers defines the issues and agendas for the new century
