Sources Of Moral Agency:

The Sources of Moral Agency John Deigh, 1996-07-13 These essays are concerned with the psychology of moral agency focusing on moral feelings and moral motivation John Webster's Vision of Moral Agency W. Jeremy Jones, 2025-05-15

This book explores John Webster's contribution to one of the most important and contested topics in Christian theology the relationship between divine and human agency By examining the theme of moral ontology in Webster's constructive dogmatics this work sheds light on his contribution to this crucial subject Jones achieves this through close study of Webster's texts ranging from his early middle and late periods He reveals that Webster's moral ontology is not only a major theme in his thought but is among his most significant contributions to contemporary systematic and moral theology As the first book length study of a central theme in Webster's ethics this text will be of interest to Webster scholars and those teaching courses in late modern systematic theology and theological ethics The Moral Self Charles Lester Sherman, 1927

Healing a Broken World Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, 2002-08-08 Moe Lobeda shows how the advent of globalization places a new horizon on the spiritual quest for religious experience Healing a Broken World places spirituality and contemplative experience in relation to today's most pressing problems Handbook of Research on Professional Development for Quality Teaching and Learning Petty, Teresa, Good, Amy, Putman, S. Michael, 2016-06-16 As educational standards continue to transform it has become essential for educators and pre-service teachers to receive the support and training necessary to effectively instruct their students and meet societal expectations However there is not a clear consensus on what constitutes teacher effectiveness and quality within the education realm The Handbook of Research on Professional Development for Quality Teaching and Learning provides theoretical perspectives and empirical research on educator preparation and methods for enhancing the teaching process Focusing on teacher effectiveness and support provided to current and pre-service educators this publication is a comprehensive reference source for practitioners researchers policy makers graduate students and university faculty Forget Me Not: The Neuroethical Case Against Memory Manipulation

Peter A. DePergola II, 2018-05-15 The first philosophical monograph on the ethics of memory manipulation MM Forget Me Not The Neuroethical Case Against Memory Manipulation contends that any attempt to directly and intentionally erase episodic memories poses a grave threat to the human condition that cannot be justified within a normative moral calculus Grounding its thesis in four evidential effects namely i MM disintegrates autobiographical memory ii the disintegration of autobiographical memory degenerates emotional rationality iii the degeneration of emotional rationality decays narrative identity and iv the decay of narrative identity disables one to seek identify and act on the good DePergola argues that MM cannot be justified as a morally licit practice insofar as it disables one to seek identify and act on the good A landmark achievement in the field of neuroethics this book is a welcome addition to both the scholarly and professional community in philosophical and clinical bioethics The Development of Ethics Terence Irwin, 2007 This book is a selective historical and critical study of moral philosophy in the Socratic tradition with special attention to Aristotelian naturalism It discusses the main topics of moral philosophy as they have developed historically including the human good human nature justice friendship and morality the methods of moral inquiry the virtues and their connexions will freedom and responsibility reason and emotion relativism subjectivism and realism the theological aspect of morality The first volume discusses ancient and mediaeval moral philosophy The second volume examines early modern moral philosophy from the 16th to the 18th century This third volume continues the story up to Rawls s Theory of Justice A comparison between the Kantian and the Aristotelian outlook is one central theme of the third volume The chapters on Kant compare Kant both with his rationalist and empiricist predecessors and with the Aristotelian naturalist tradition Reactions to Kant are traced through Hegel Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Kierkegaard Utilitarian and idealist approaches to Kantian and Aristotelian views are traced through Sidgwick Bradley and Green Mill and Sidgwick provide a link between 18th century rationalism and sentimentalism and the 20th century debates in the metaphysics and epistemology of morality These debates are explored in Moore Ross Stevenson Hare C I Lewis Heidegger and in some more recent meta ethical discussion This volume concludes with a discussion of Rawls with special emphasis on a comparison of his position with utilitarianism intuitionism Kantianism naturalism and idealism Since this book seeks to be not only descriptive and exegetical but also philosophical it discusses the comparative merits of different views the difficulties that they raise and how some of the difficulties might be resolved It presents the leading moral philosophers of the past as participants in a rational discussion in which the contemporary reader can participate EBL

The Development of Ethics, Volume 3 Terence Irwin, 2009-09-10 This book is a selective historical and critical study of moral philosophy in the Socratic tradition with special attention to Aristotelian naturalism It discusses the main topics of moral philosophy as they have developed historically including the human good human nature justice friendship and morality the methods of moral inquiry the virtues and their connexions will freedom and responsibility reason and emotion relativism subjectivism and realism the theological aspect of morality The first volume discusses ancient and mediaeval moral philosophy The second volume examines early modern moral philosophy from the 16th to the 18th century This third volume continues the story up to Rawls s Theory of Justice A comparison between the Kantian and the Aristotelian outlook is one central theme of the third volume The chapters on Kant compare Kant both with his rationalist and empiricist predecessors and with the Aristotelian naturalist tradition Reactions to Kant are traced through Hegel Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Kierkegaard Utilitarian and idealist approaches to Kantian and Aristotelian views are traced through Sidgwick Bradley and Green Mill and Sidgwick provide a link between 18th century rationalism and sentimentalism and the 20th century debates in the metaphysics and epistemology of morality These debates are explored in Moore Ross Stevenson Hare C I Lewis Heidegger and in some more recent meta ethical discussion This volume concludes with a discussion of Rawls with special emphasis on a comparison of his position with utilitarianism intuitionism Kantianism naturalism and idealism Since this book seeks to be not only descriptive and exegetical but also philosophical it discusses the comparative merits of different views the difficulties that they raise and how some of the difficulties might be resolved It presents the leading moral philosophers of the past as participants in a rational discussion in which the contemporary reader can participate

The Automated Self Edmundo Balsemão Pires, 2024-12-17 The Automated Self explores meta theoretical issues in the philosophy of artificial intelligence combining it with themes from philosophy of science and technology media and communication studies and ethics Balsem o Pires provides an integrated view of contemporary problems of AI including the theoretical premises and discussions on the meaning functioning and social uses of cognitive machines the recent ethical and legal challenges on privacy interpretability and data ownership passing through a careful discussion of the media embedment of the new technologies and the uses of algorithms in the production and consumption of art

The Church in a Secular Age Silje Kvamme Bjørndal, 2018-09-20 How can the church navigate the challenges of our secular age In The Church in a Secular Age Norwegian and Pentecostal scholar Silje Kvamme Bjørndal takes on three dynamic thinkers each in their own way in search for insights to this question Philosopher Charles Taylor offers the backdrop for the conversation as Bjørndal carefully sifts out some of his most central tenets for understanding our secular age Bjørndal then turns to the theologian and ethicist Stanley Hauerwas and critically engages his notion of the church as a community set apart from our secular age By bringing several of Hauerwas s interlocutors into the conversation Bjørndal manages to bring out both the acute relevance and the shortcomings of his ecclesiology Thus she finds that another turn is needed in order to offer a concrete as well as creative contribution to this ecclesiological conversation Considering the undeveloped pneumatological undercurrent in Hauerwas s work it proves fruitful to engage the leading Pentecostal scholar Amos Yong and his foundational pneumatology This engagement results in a shift of agency from the community to the Spirit And keeping up the dialogue with Taylor s secular age Bjørndal demonstrates how the Spirit s agency is crucial for the church as it attempts to navigate the particular challenges and opportunities of a secular age
