Lester C. King

South African Scenery:

Washed with Sun Jeremy A. Foster, 2008 Looking mainly at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster examines the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa South African Scenery Lester Charles King, 1963 Landscapes and Landforms of South Africa Stefan Grab, Jasper Knight, 2015-03-05 This book presents a beautifully illustrated overview of the most prominent landscapes of South Africa and the distinctive landforms associated with them It describes the processes origins and the environmental significance of those landscapes including their relationships to human activity of the past and present The sites described in this book include amongst others the Blyde River Canyon Au-grabies Falls Kruger National Park Kalahari desert landscapes the Great Escarpment Sterkfontein caves and karst system Table Mountain Cape winelands coastal dunes rocky coasts Boer War battlefield sites and Vredefort impact structure Landscapes and Landforms of South Africa provides a new perspective on South Africa s scenic landscapes by considering their diversity long and short term histories and importance for geoconservation and geotourism This book will be relevant to those interested in the geology physical geography and history of South Africa climate change and landscape tourism South African Scenery Lester Charles King, 1942 Washed with Sun Jeremy Foster, 2014-08-15 South Africa is recognized as a site of both political turmoil and natural beauty and yet little work has been done in connecting these defining national characteristics Washed with Sun achieves this conjunction in its multidisciplinary study of South Africa as a space at once natural and constructed Weaving together practical aesthetic and ideological analyses Jeremy Foster examines the role of landscape in forming the cultural iconographies and spatialities that shaped the imaginary geography of emerging nationhood Looking in particular at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster discusses the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa In its innovative approach to South Africa s history Washed with Sun breaks important new ground combining the persuasive theory of cultural geography with the material specificity of landscape history Southern African Landscapes and Environmental Change Peter J. Holmes, John Boardman, 2018-07-04 This volume provides a textbook and reference work on the physical and biotic landscapes of Southern Africa It examines the links between these environments and the ways in which they have been are and will likely be subject to change It covers the geomorphology soils vegetation and land use across a range of landscapes including mountains coasts savannah drylands and wetlands and identifies the impacts of current and potential climate change and other factors on these environments The geographical focus is on the region defined by Namibia South Africa Botswana Mozambique Zimbabwe Lesotho and Swaziland Illustrated throughout in full colour the book will serve as a reference volume for researchers and environmental professionals internationally as well as a textbook for senior undergraduate and graduate level students of geography ecology and environmental studies in Southern Africa

50 Must-See Geological Sites in South Africa Gavin Whitfield,2016-01-11 The book presents 50 of the most recognizable and geologically interesting sites around South Africa including some of palaeontological or historical renown and some of mining interest The diverse selection includes sites such as Chapman s Peak Howick Falls Walter Sisulu National Botanical Gardens Mapungubwe Tswaing Meteorite Crater and the Fraserburg Fossil Surface Each site is unpacked to reveal key features geological heritage landscape and rock formations topics of local or historical interest things to see and do at the site and in the surrounding area Maps and GPS pointers make the sites easy to find and some of the more complicated features are explained by means of simplified diagrams Nearly 1 000 colour images illustrate South Africa s remarkable geology and bring the topic vividly to life making the book suitable for armchair travel too

South Africa Monica Cole,2022-10-05 Originally published in 1961 this book was the first comprehensive work on South African geography that also presented a balanced account of all facets of the economic life It was written to provide background information on South Africa the nature of the country its resources and deficiencies its historic settlement by peoples of different races and of the progress made and the difficulties encountered in the major areas of economic activity agriculture mining manufacturing and trade In discussing these factors the book acknowledged that in South Africa the complexities of the relationships between peoples of different racial origins and widely differently economic and cultural standards are met in one country

Illustrated Official Handbook of the Cape and South Africa John Noble,1893

Southern African Geomorphology Peter Holmes,Michael Meadows,2013-01-06 This book covers the geomorphology and landscape evolution of South Africa focusing on arid landscapes fluvial systems karst Quaternary landscapes macro scale geomorphic evolution coastal geomorphology and applied geomorphology It would appeal to postgraduate students in Physical Geography Geomorphology and Physical Geology and all academics in the earth sciences

Gondwana Landscapes in southern South America Jorge Rabassa,Cliff Ollier,2014-04-11 This book presents extensive and new information on the geomorphology of cratonic areas of southern South America It includes valuable data relating to recurrent controversies in general geomorphology beyond the boundaries of South America and reveals the great need to integrate many different aspects of geomorphology in regional studies With the focus on ancient landscapes and especially on planation surfaces it addresses the question of what processes could form such huge features and how they can be preserved for so long Many of the papers include maps of planation surfaces or other geomorphic units The volume brings together an up to date state of the art collection of information on South American geomorphology and shows beyond doubt that geomorphology is on the same time scale as global tectonics biological evolution and major climate change Some of the papers describe ancient geomorphological features of areas that have never been studied or published before while others

describe regions which are totally unknown to the public The scope of the book extends from tropical latitudes north of the Tropic of Capricorn south to freezing Patagonia in the roaring fifties more than 3 500 km from north to south Including over one thousand citations from geological and geomorphological literature this volume will serve as a starting point for a whole new phase of studies of the fascinating landscape history of southern South America Tourism Destinations Southern Africa Heather Du Plessis,2000 Southern Africa combines spectacular scenery and awe inspiring beauty with a kaleidoscopic cultural heritage steeped in history This book provides a wealth of information on the regions fascinating array of tourist destinations and attractions Tourism Destinations Southern Africa highlights the most important tourist sites broadly following the tourism authorities top venues These are complemented by information on areas considered to be of particular interest from the perspectives of culture conservation and eco tourism as well as sport and leisure pursuits The text is easy to read and user friendly making use of detailed maps and activities It is essential reading for students travellers travel consultants and anyone interested in learning more about what Southern Africa has to offer as a tourist destination

Colonial Survey and Native Landscapes in Rural South Africa, 1850 - 1913 Lindsay F. Braun,2014-10-16 In Colonial Survey and Native Landscapes in Rural South Africa 1850 1913 Lindsay Frederick Braun explores the technical processes and struggles surrounding the creation and maintenance of boundaries and spaces in South Africa in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The precision of surveyors and other colonial technicians lent these enterprises an illusion of irreproachable objectivity and authority even though the reality was far messier Using a wide range of archival and printed materials from survey departments repositories and libraries the author presents two distinct episodes of struggle over lands and livelihoods one from the Eastern Cape and one from the former northern Transvaal These cases expose the contingencies contests and negotiations that fundamentally shaped these changing South African landscapes The Statesman's

Year-Book S. Steinberg,2016-12-29 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world African Landscapes Michael Bollig,Olaf Bubenzer,2009-06-12 Landscape studies provide a crucial perspective into the interaction between humans and their environment shedding insight on social cultural and economic topics The research explores both the way that natural processes have affected the development of culture and society as well as the ways that natural landscapes themselves are the product of historical and cultural processes Most previous studies of the landscape selectively focused on either the natural sciences or the social sciences but the research presented in African Landscapes bridges that gap This work is unique in its interdisciplinary scope Over the past twelve years the contributors to this volume have participated in the collaborative research center ACACIA Arid Climate Adaptation and Cultural Innovation in Africa which deals with the relationship between cultural processes and ecological dynamics in Africa s arid areas The case studies presented here come from mainly Sahara Sahel and southwestern Africa and are all linked to broader discussions on the concept of landscape and themes of cultural anthropological geographical botanical sociological and archaeological interest The contributions in this work are enhanced by full color photographs that put the discussion in context visually Catalogue of the Books in the Senior Section Johannesburg (South Africa). Public Library,1905

Geomorphological Landscapes of the World Piotr Migon,2010-01-22 Physical landscapes are one of the most fascinating facets of our Planet which tell stories about the evolution of the surface of the Earth This book provides up to date information about the geomorphology of the selected classic sites from around the world and shows the variety of geomorphological landscapes as moulded by different sets of processes acting over different timescales from millions of years to days The volume is written by nearly fifty geomorphologists from more than twenty countries who for many years have researched some of the unique sceneries on the planet The thirty six chapters present each continent of the world They describe landscapes of different origin so that the reader can learn about the complexity of processes behind the sceneries This is a useful reference book linking geomorphology with global initiatives focused on nature conservation Narrative of a Residence in South Africa Thomas Pringle,Josiah Conder,1840 Narrative of a Residence in South Africa Thomas Pringle (Poet.),1840
