Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding,2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 Paul S. Landau,2010-09-20 Popular Politics in the History of South Africa 1400 1948 offers an inclusive vision of South Africa s past Drawing largely from original sources Paul Landau presents a history of the politics of the country s people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of Apartheid A practical tradition of mobilization alliance and amalgamation persisted mutated and occasionally vanished from view it survived against the odds in several forms in tribalisms Christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements and it continues today Landau treats southern Africa broadly concentrating increasingly on the southern Highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the Samuelites He shows how people s politics in South Africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated The Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1978 A Visual History of HIV/AIDS Elisabet Björklund,Mariah Larsson,2018-07-04 The Face of AIDS film archive at Karolinska Institutet Sweden consists of more than 700 hours of unedited and edited footage shot over a period of more than thirty years and all over the world by filmmaker and journalist Staffan Hildebrand The material documents the HIV AIDS pandemic and includes scenes from conferences and rallies and interviews with activists physicians people with the infection and researchers It represents a global historical development from the early years of the AIDS crisis to a situation in which it is possible to live a normal life with the HIV virus This volume brings together a range of academic perspectives from media and film studies medical history gender studies history and cultural studies to bear on the archive shedding light on memories discourses trauma and activism Using a medical humanities framework the editors explore the influence of historical representations of HIV AIDS and stigma in a world where antiretroviral treatment has fundamentally altered the conditions under which many people diagnosed with HIV live Organized into four sections this book begins by introducing the archive and its role setting it in a global context The first part looks at methodological legal and ethical issues around archiving memories of the present which are then used to construct histories of the past something that can be particularly controversial when dealing with a socially stigmatized epidemic such as HIV AIDS The second section is devoted to analyses of particular films from the archive looking at the portrayal of people living with HIV AIDS the narrative of HIV as a chronic illness and the contemporary context of particular films The third section looks at how stigma and trauma are negotiated in the material in the Face of AIDS film archive discussing ideas about suffering and culpability The final section contributes perspectives on and by the filmmaker as activist and auteur This interdisciplinary collection is placed at the intersection of medical humanities sexuality studies and film and media studies continuing a tradition of studies on the cultural and social understandings of HIV AIDS
