A South African Kingdom Elizabeth A. Eldredge,2002-06-06 The Basotho kingdom emerged and consolidated in the dramatic and dangerous environment of nineteenth century South Africa In this 2003 book Elizabeth Eldredge provides a rich description of local agriculture iron working and craft industries bringing out the resourceful responses of the Basotho to the challenges of drought and famine and explaining the dynamics of the competition for land During the colonial period regional economic integration increasingly influenced local production land use and internal politics and drew the Basotho into the regional migrant labour system Throughout these turbulent years the overriding interest of the Basotho was the pursuit of security Dr Eldredge analyzes the epic struggle which bound together rich and poor chiefs and commoners and men and women in a largely successful effort to sustain this fragile and innovative society in the face of political threats and environmental challenges The Archaeology of Southern Africa Peter Mitchell,2002-11-14 This book provides an archaeological synthesis of Southern Africa driven by local forces and constituted only the most recent round in a set of centuries old debates about the best way for pious people to confront social injustice It argues that traditional historical methods prevent an appreciation of Muslim intellectual history in Africa by misunderstanding the nature of information gathering during colonial rule and misconstruing the relationship between documents and oral history

Cultivating the Colonies Christina Folke Ax, Niels Brimnes, Niklas Thode Jensen, Karen Oslund, 2014-06-16 The essays collected in Cultivating the Colonies demonstrate how the relationship between colonial power and nature reveals the nature of power Each essay explores how colonial governments translated ideas about the management of exotic nature and foreign people into practice and how they literally got their hands dirty in the business of empire The eleven essays include studies of animal husbandry in the Philippines farming in Indochina and indigenous medicine in India They are global in scope ranging from the Russian North to Mozambique examining the consequences of colonialism on nature including its impact on animals fisheries farmlands medical practices and even the diets of indigenous people Cultivating the Colonies establishes beyond all possible doubt the importance of the environment as a locus for studying the power of the colonial state

Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2010 This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman's research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches

Slavery In South Africa Elizabeth Eldredge, Fred Morton, 2019-05-28 South African slavery differs from slavery practiced in other frontier zones of European settlement in that the settlers enslaved indigenes as a supplement to and eventually as a replacement for imported slave labor On the expanding frontier Dutch speaking farmers increasingly met their labor needs by conducting slave raids arming African slave
