Stephen Chan, OBE

South Africa's Other Whites Voices For Change:

South Africa's Other Whites Robert Scott Jaster, 2016-07-27 The voices speaking here represent an extraordinary group of South Africans those whites a minority within a minority who have been struggling against the injustices of apartheid and working in separate ways to prepare their countrymen black and white for a just and democratic post apartheid society This book captures their stories at a critical time when apartheid is being dismantled but the structure of the new South Africa has yet to be determined

Heart of Whiteness June Goodwin, Ben Schiff, 1995 When South Africa's present transitional government comes to an end apartheid will be dead But just as the demise of slavery did not solve America's race problems so the abolition of apartheid will only begin South Africa's healing process Heart of Whiteness examines the cataclysmic changes taking place among Afrikaners the white tribe of South Africa

State, 1995 The Lived International Stephen Chan, OBE, 2022-02-25 The Lived International is a poetic account of Stephen Chan's personal engagement in International Relations It speaks to the inadequacy of an abstract voyeurism while the problems of the world are death devastation and underdevelopment Drawn from a lifetime of travel and engagement and from both published and hitherto unpublished poetry forming a parallel list to the author's academic works the book seeks to inject into debate the sense that language spoken and written discourse alone are not a sufficient claim to bearing witness and that even activism from afar can often fail to understand a human condition that afflicts the majority of the world's population Chan demonstrates that a life of praxis living international relations yields more insights than a life of theory alone
