Southeast Asia in World History Craig Lockard, 2009-04-24 Here is a brief well written and lively survey of the history of Southeast Asia from ancient times to the present paying particular attention to the region's role in world history and the distinctive societies that arose in lands shaped by green fields and forests blue rivers and seas Craig Lockard shows how for several millennia Southeast Asians living at the crossroads of Asia enjoyed ever expanding connections to both China and India and later developed maritime trading networks to the Middle East and Europe He explores how the people of the region combined local and imported ideas to form unique cultures reflected in such striking creations as Malay sailing craft Javanese gamelan music and batik cloth classical Burmese and Cambodian architecture and social structures in which women have often played unusually influential roles Lockard describes colonization by Europeans and Americans between 1500 and 1914 tracing how the social economic and political frameworks inherited from the past combined with active opposition to domination by foreign powers enabled Southeast Asians to overcome many challenges and regain their independence after World War II The book also relates how Malaysia Singapore Thailand Indonesia and Vietnam are now among the fastest growing economies in the world and play a critical role in today's global marketplace

Southeast Asia Sree Kumar, Sharon Siddique, 2008 Political Legitimacy in Southeast Asia Muthiah Alagappa, 1995 Despite the end of the Cold War security continues to be a critical concern of Asian states Allocations of state revenues to the security sector continue to be substantial and have in fact increased in several countries As Asian nations construct a new security architecture for the Asia Pacific region Asian security has received increased attention by the scholarly community But most of that scholarship has focused on specific issues or selected countries This book aims to lay the groundwork for a comprehensive in depth understanding of Asian security by investigating conceptions of security in sixteen Asian countries The book undertakes an ethnographic country by country study of how Asian states conceive of their security For each country it identifies and explains the security concerns and behavior of central decision makers asking who or what is to be protected against what potential threats and how security policies have changed over time This inside out or bottom up approach facilitates both identification of similarities and differences in the security thinking and practice of Asian countries and exploration of their consequences The crucial insights into the dynamics of international security in the region provided by this approach can form the basis for further inquiry including debates about the future of the region
