Indiscretions , 2015-06-29 In the West once apparently progressive causes such as sexual equality and lesbian and gay emancipation are increasingly redeployed in order to discipline and ostracize immigrant underclass subjects primarily Muslims Gender and sexuality on the one hand and race culture and or ethnicity on the other are more and more forced into separate mutually exclusive realms That development cannot but bear on the establishment of queer and postcolonial studies as separate academic specializations among whom relations usually are as cordial as they are indifferent This volume inquires into the possibilities and limitations of a parceling out of objects alternative to the common scheme crude but often apposite in which Western sexual subjectivity is analyzed and criticized by queer theory while postcolonial studies takes care of non Western racial subjectivity Sex race always already distinguished yet never quite apart Roderick A Ferguson has described liberal pluralism as an ideology of discreteness in that it disavows race gender and sexuality s mutually formative role in political social and economic relations

It is in that spirit that this volume advocates the discreet hence judicious and circumspect reconsideration of the in discrete realities of race and sex Contributors Jeffrey Geiger Merrill Cole Jonathan Mitchell and Michael O Rourke Jaap Kooijman Beth Kramer Maaike Bleeker Rebecca Fine Romanow Anik Imre Lindsey Green Simms Nishant Shahani Ryan D Fong and Murat Aydemir
