Souvenir Of Australia:

Souvenir Rolf Potts, 2018-03-08 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things. For as long as people have traveled to distant lands they have brought home objects to certify the journey. More than mere merchandise, these travel souvenirs take on a personal and cultural meaning that goes beyond the object itself. Drawing on several millennia of examples from the relic-driven quests of early Christians to the mass-produced tchotchkes that line the shelves of a Disney gift shop, travel writer Rolf Potts delves into a complicated history that explores issues of authenticity, cultural obligation, market forces, human suffering, and self-presentation. Souvenirs are shown for what they really are: not just objects but personalized forms of folk storytelling that enable people to make sense of the world and their place in it. Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic. Souvenir features illustrations by Cedar Van Tassel.

Tourism Art and Souvenirs David Hume, 2013-10-01 This book examines the relationship between art and tourism through the study of the material culture of tourism, tourist art, and souvenirs. It thoroughly examines how to categorise the material culture of tourism within the discourses of contemporary art and cultural anthropology and demonstrates that tourist art is a unique expression of place and genuine artistic style. The first investigation to consider the activity of souvenirs from both indigenous and settler tourist sites, it brings a unique addition to the existing, dated research in the area. Working initially from Graburn's definition of tourist art as the art of one culture made specifically for the consumption of another, Tourism Art and Souvenirs sheds light on important aspects of the souvenir that have not been widely discussed. The most recent research is used to consider how the souvenir is designed and consumed, consumer expectations, and influence on the character of the souvenir; how the souvenir maker is consumed by the tradition of heritage; and how products become successful as souvenirs. The title also investigates the language involved in the representation of place and the recording of experience through the souvenir, developing a method that expresses the descriptive data of individual souvenir artefacts graphically so the patterns of language may be analysed. Enhancing the understanding of material culture in tourism and therefore adding to future tourism development, this volume will be of interest to upper-level students, researchers, and academics in tourism, culture, heritage, and sustainability.

The Magnificent Life of Miss May Holman: Australia's First Female Labor Parliamentarian Lekkie Hopkins, 2016-01-01 Throughout the 1930s, May Holman was a household name and an inspiration to the women of her generation. She made history in 1925 when, at age thirty-one, she became Australia's first female Labor parliamentarian, holding the seat of Forrest until her untimely death on the eve of the 1939 elections. A woman who fought tirelessly for the rights of those in her electorate, her accidental death received national coverage, with thousands of Western Australian mourners lining the streets to pay tribute. May Holman charted new territory for women, but the barriers she encountered and her methods of overcoming them still resonate today.
