The Denver Artists Guild Stan Cuba, 2015-05-15 In 1928 the newly organized Denver Artists Guild held its inaugural exhibition in downtown Denver Little did the participants realize that their initial effort would survive the Great Depression and World War II and then outlive all of the group's fifty-two charter members The guild's founders worked in many media and pursued a variety of styles In addition to the oils and watercolors one would expect were masterful pastels by Elsie Haddon Haynes photographs by Laura Gilpin sculpture by Gladys Caldwell Fisher and Arnold Ronnebeck ceramics by Anne Van Briggles Ritter and Paul St Gaudens and collages by Pansy Stockton Styles included realism impressionism regionalism surrealism and abstraction Murals by Allen True Vance Kirkland John E Thompson Louise Ronnebeck and others graced public and private buildings secular and religious in Colorado and throughout the United States The guild's artists didn't just contribute to the fine and decorative arts of Colorado they enhanced the national reputation of the state Then in 1948 the Denver Artists Guild became the stage for a great public debate pitting traditional against modern The twenty-year-old guild split apart as modernists bolted to form their own group the Fifteen Colorado Artists It was a seminal moment some of the guild's artists became great modernists while others remained great traditionalists Enhanced by period photographs and reproductions of the founding members' works The Denver Artists Guild chronicles a vibrant yet overlooked chapter of Colorado's cultural history The book includes a walking tour of guild members' paintings and sculptures viewable in Denver and elsewhere in Colorado by Leah Naess and author Stan Cuba In honor of the book's release the Byers Evans House Gallery will showcase a collection of founding guild members' works starting June 26 2015 The exhibit also titled The Denver Artists Guild Its Founding Members contains paintings from artists such as the famed Paschal Quackenbush Louise Ronnebeck Albert Byron Olson Elisabeth Spalding Waldo Love and Vance Kirkland The show will be on display through September 26 2015 School Arts Magazine, 1911 "Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940" Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Toronto the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage Architecture Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings modes of transportation and ways to spend leisure time The book discusses several case studies some of which are known both locally and internationally for example Casa Loma while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design craft and domesticity in Toronto This study will be of interest not only to the academic community namely architects designers craftspeople and scholars of these disciplines along with social historians but also the general public interested in local history and or visual culture

Art, Design and Visual Culture Malcolm Barnard, 1998-09-23 Most of our experience is visual We obtain most of our information and knowledge through sight whether from reading books and newspapers from watching television or from quickly glimpsing road signs Many of our judgements and decisions concerning where we live what we shall drive and sit on and what we wear are based on what places cars furniture and clothes look like Much of our entertainment and recreation is visual whether we visit art galleries cinemas or read comics This book concerns that visual experience Why do we have the visual experiences we have Why do the buildings cars products and advertisements we see look the way they do How are we to explain the existence of different styles of paintings different types of cars and different genres of film How are we to explain the existence of different visual cultures This book begins to answer these questions by explaining visual experience in terms of visual culture The strengths and weaknesses of traditional means of analysing and explaining visual culture are examined and assessed Using a wide range of historical and contemporary examples it is argued that the groups which artists and designers form the audiences and markets which they sell to and the different social classes which are produced and reproduced by art and design are all part of the successful explanation and critical evaluation of visual culture
