Readers who enjoy the novels of Jeanne Birdsall and Leslie Crunch will appreciate this charming story School Library Journal There is a strong sense of place in this loving story with the ending sure to generate some tears This would make a strong library lesson extension activity Library Media Connection Awards SCBWI s Golden Kite Award for Fiction 2012 Dorothy Canfield Fisher Book Award Rebecca Caudill Young Readers Book Award Landscapes of Decadence Alex Murray,2016-12 This book explores the relationship between literary politics and the politics of place in fin de si cle travel and place based literature Women and Comedy Susan Carlson,2025-10-01 The first comprehensive study of its kind this book explores the contradictory connections between women and dramatic comedy Women and Comedy shows how a genre that has been used historically to restrict women s behavior is being reconfigured to express women s triumphs It thus redefines the assumptions with which both traditional comedy and contemporary women s plays are read and viewed Challenging a critical consensus that has seen comedy as a haven for female power Carlson argues that traditional comedy is deeply sexist welcoming strong women characters only because it can contain their power Through an analysis of a range of comedies by Shakespeare Congreve Maugham Shaw and Ayckbourn the author shows that even in these plays self consciously about liberated females women gain only a limited freedom a freedom that the endings of the plays work to negate This negotiation is seen to result in part from the comic structure itself which privileges a merely temporary inversion and an ultimate return to the status quo Carlson then examines the transitional work of three writers Aphra Behn Henry James and Ann Jellicoe whose heroines follow an unorthodox trajectory through their comic worlds While the work of these writers clearly remains within the mainstream comic tradition the author notes in them a subtle departure most notably in their description of the heroine as subject rather than object which prefigures the full scale transformations of women in comedy by contemporary women writers The book then examines contemporary comedy that revises traditional comic structure at the same time as it explores fundamental social change In making her case for the difference of contemporary comedy by women Carlson examines the reformulations of structure and character and considers issues of community self and sexuality in a broad range of plays by individual playwrights and by the new women s theater collectives Women and Comedy is an important work for students of British drama and will appeal to theater practitioners critics feminist scholars and all those interested in the performing arts Northrop Frye International Symposium on Northrup Frye Studies,2003-01-01 Drawn from papers given at an international symposium on Northrop Frye in Hoh Hot Inner Mongolia this volume offers insights intoFrye s theoretical approaches and the new context provided by cross cultural questions The Methuen Drama Handbook of Gender and Theatre Sean Metzger,Roberta Mock,2023-12-28 Shortlisted for the 2024 TaPRA Edited Collection Prize This is a guide to contemporary debates and theatre practices at a time when gender paradigms are both in flux and at the centre of explosive political battlegrounds The confluence of gender and theatre has long created intense debate about representation identification social conditioning desire embodiment and lived experience

As this handbook demonstrates from the conventions of early modern English Chinese Japanese and Hispanic theatres to the subversion of racialized binaries of masculinity and femininity in recent North American African Asian Caribbean and European productions the matter of gender has consistently taken centre stage This handbook examines how critical discourses on gender intersect with key debates in the field of theatre studies as a lens to illuminate the practices of gender and theatre as well as the societies they inform and represent across space and time Of interest to scholars in the interrelated areas of feminist gender and sexuality studies theatre and performance studies cultural studies and globalization and diasporic studies this book demonstrates how researchers are currently addressing theatre about gender issues and gendered theatre practices While synthesizing and summarizing foundational and evolving debates from a contemporary perspective this collection offers interpretations and analyses that do not simply look back at existing scholarship but open up new possibilities and understandings Featuring essential research tools including a survey of keywords and an annotated play list this is an indispensable scholarly handbook for anyone working in theatre and performance

Who Listens? Janet Bourne, 2025 Chapter 1 describes how the cognitive process of analogy can be used as a framework for analyzing how individual listeners relate what they are hearing to what they may have heard or learned in musical and other experiences in the past The framework emphasizes the cognitive steps a person takes when making an analogy of any kind 1 retrieval remembering patterns and associations based on experience 2 mapping aligning situations and 3 inference transfer transferring inferences associations recognizing manipulations I use this process to analyze hearings of Western art music illustrating not only how listeners might analogize music to other domains such as the body or language as a framing analogy for their listening experience but also how they might analogize details of the music they are currently hearing to music they have heard in the past creating what I call music to music analogies

The Cloud-Capped Star (Meghe Dhaka Tara) Manishita Dass, 2020-10-01 Ritwik Ghatak's The Cloud Capped Star Meghe Dhaka Tara 1960 has been hailed as one of the great classics of world cinema Adrian Martin and one of the five or six greatest melodramas in cinema history Serge Daney A striking blend of modernist aesthetics and melodramatic force it is arguably the best known film by Ghatak widely considered to be one of the most original politically committed and formally innovative film makers from India The film's focus on a family uprooted by the Partition of India and its powerful exploration of displacement and historical trauma gives it a renewed relevance in the midst of a global refugee crisis Manishita Dass situates the film in its historical and cultural contexts and within Ghatak's film making career and connects it to his theatrical work and his writings on film and theatre Her close reading of the film locates its emotional and intellectual power in what she describes as its cinematic theatricality and brings into focus Ghatak's modernist experiments with melodramatic devices his deliberate departures from cinematic realism and distinctive use of sound and music The book draws on extensive archival research excavates new layers of meaning and offers fresh insights into the cosmopolitan cinematic sensibility of a director described as one of the most neglected major film makers in the world Jonathan Rosenbaum The Marriage of Maria Braun Rainer Werner Fassbinder,1986 Commentary and criticism on Fassbinder s film The marriage of Maria Braun Comedy and Cultural Critique in American Film Ryan Bishop,2014-11-28 This book uses large scale social and cultural trends and major world events to analyse the American comedy film English Studies Mehmet Ali Çelikel,Baysar Taniyan,2015-09-18 This volume offers a selection of revised versions of the papers presented at the 7th International IDEA Conference held at Pamukkale University in Denizli Turkey organised by the Association of English Language and Literary Studies in Turkey The contributions to this book offer a wide range of research from scholars on a variety of topics in English literature including Shakespearean studies Victorian colonial and postcolonial literature poetry and drama studies The volume also includes a number of informative research articles on comparative and translation studies which will offer assistance to young scholars in their academic studies In addition to acting as a guide to young academics the book will also function as a fruitful reference book in a wide range of English literary studies Untamed and Unabashed Regina Barreca,1994 In Untamed and Unabashed Regina Barreca noted authority on women and humor examines the use of humor in the works of Jane Austen Charlotte Bronte George Eliot Elizabeth Bowen Muriel Spark and Fay Weldon She analyzes the ways that each writer uses comedic devices especially those involving language itself and discusses the gendered basis of their humor providing a provocative feminist perspective on gender and comedy Each of the essays argues that conservative critics have misread and misunderstood the importance of humor in the works of these women authors and that women s humor serves to explode conventions oppressive to women and to offer women readers a critique of and an alternative perspective on the dominant cultural ideologies that contain and oppress them The book concludes that these authors strategically deployed humor coded in forms that women readers but not men readers would recognize and understand as a means of educating and empowering those women readers Barreca asserts that much of women s comic play has to do with power and its systematic misappropriation allowing women to gain perspective by ridiculing the implicit insanities of a patriarchal culture Using detailed persuasive new readings of various works of each of her chosen authors she shows how the straightjacket of conventional femininity is challenged confronted and finally thrown off This volume demonstrates that comedy can effectively channel anger and rebellion by first making them appear to be acceptable and temporary phenomena and then by harnessing the released energies rather than dispersing them This kind of comedy which is at the heart of Untamed and Unabashed terrifies those who hold order dear It should Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
