

The Gentle Gardener

*I'd like to leave but daffodills to mark my little way,
To leave but tulips red and white behind me as I stray; I'd like to pass away from earth and feel I'd left behind But roses and forget-me-nots for all who come to find.*

*I'd like to sow the barren spots with all the flowers of earth, To leave a path where those who come should find but gentle mirth;
And when at last I'm called upon to join the heavenly throng I'd like to feel along my way I'd left no sign of wrong.*

*And yet the cares are many and the hours of toil are few;
There is not time enough on earth for all I'd like to do;
But, having lived and having toiled, I'd like the world to find Some little touch of beauty that my soul had left behind.*

The Guest in the Garden and Other Poems Kit Tremain, 1989 Finding List of the Free Public Library of Newark, N.J. Newark Public Library, 1893 The Southern Garden Poetry Society David B Honey, 2013-03-06 What has traditionally been the main matter explored by Cantonese literati From the earliest poets oceanic elements and riparian scenes contrasted with stunning rock formations a love for the exotic especially local plants products and lore Daoist transcendentalism and finally a concern for pointing up local loyalty to the distant throne and a fierce pride in being culturally authentically Chinese The Southern Garden Poetry Society in Guangzhou was the only major literary club in Chinese history to be periodically reconvened over the Ming Qing and Republican eras Beginning with an examination of its five founding members during the Yuan Ming transition period in particular Sun Fen 1335 1393 David Honey traces the various elements of this Southern Muse that became embodied in later Cantonese poetry and pursues the issue of social memory by focusing on later reconvenings of the society

Metamorphosis of the Private Sphere Xiaoshan Yang, 2020-05-11 The Chinese garden has been explored from a variety of angles Much has been written about its structural features as well as its cosmological religious philosophical moral aesthetic and economic underpinnings This book deals with the poetic configurations of the private garden in cities from the ninth to the eleventh century in relation to the development of the private sphere in Chinese literati culture It focuses on the ways in which the new values and rhetoric associated with gardens and the objects found in them helped shape the processes of self cultivation and self imaging among the literati as they searched for alternatives to conventional values at a time when traditional political moral and aesthetic norms were increasingly judged inapplicable or inadequate The garden was also an artifact and a locus for material culture and social competition Focusing on a series of anecdotes about private transactions involving objects in gardens the author dissects the intricate nexus between the exchange of poetry and the poetry of exchange In tracing the development of the private urban garden through the writings of Bai Juyi Su Shi Sima Guang and their contemporaries the author argues that this private space figured increasingly as a place of disengagement for those out of political power and hence was increasingly invaded by political forces
