Committee on Public Works.

Subcommittee on Air and Water Pollution, 1964 Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management Thomas Sterner, Jessica Coria, 2013-10-30

Thomas Sterner's book is an attempt to encourage more widespread and careful use of economic policy instruments. The book compares the accumulated experiences of the use of economic policy instruments in the U S and Europe as well as in rich and poor countries in Asia Africa and Latin America. Ambitious in scope it discusses the design of instruments that can be employed in any country in a wide range of contexts including transportation industrial pollution water pricing waste fisheries forests and agriculture. While deeply rooted in economics Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management is informed by political legal ecological and psychological research. The new edition enhances what has already been widely hailed as a highly innovative work. The book includes greatly expanded coverage of climate change covering aspects related to policy design international equity and discounting voluntary carbon markets permit trading in United States and the Clean Development Mechanism. Focusing ever more on leading ideas in both theory and policy the new edition brings experimental economics into the main of its discussions. It features expanded coverage of the monitoring and enforcement of environmental policy technological change the choice of policy instruments under imperfect competition and subjects such as corporate social responsibility bio fuels payments for ecosystem services and REDD. Biotechniques for Air Pollution Abatement and Odour Control Policies A.J. Dragt, J. van Ham, 1992-06-26. The increasing concern for odour abatement and more generally for reduction of air pollution has caused a rapid growth in the development of air pollution control techniques several of which are based on biological degradation of the polluting compounds. This book presents a state of the art overview of recent developments in biological techniques for air pollution control. It describes in detail processes for the prevention of odour nuisances and reduction of odour emissions. It also deals with process design and construction of equipment as well as with odour policy measurements at an international level.

Costs of Ammonia Abatement and the Climate Co-Benefits Stefan Reis, Clare Howard, Mark A. Sutton, 2015-05-19. This book examines the costs involved in reducing ammonia emissions from agricultural practices as well as the potential benefits for climate change mitigation. It features contributions by experts in agricultural production processes producers of agricultural equipment and service providers as well as scientists who assess the issue from an European perspective. Coverage examines all agricultural production stages starting from animal feed and housing including the storage and application of liquid and solid manure and of mineral fertilizer In addition the book looks at the relationship between ammonia control and greenhouse gas emissions and details the GAINS Greenhouse Gas and Air Pollution Interactions and Synergies model for estimating costs and reducing ammonia emissions from agriculture Examples and case studies from select European countries including Italy Switzerland Russia Ireland and Spain provide readers with detailed studies of ammonia abatement costs and the effectiveness of implementing control measures under different conditions This book is the result of an Expert Workshop held under the auspices of the UNECE Convention on Long range Transboundary Air Pollution CLRTAP and organised by the Task Force on Reactive Nitrogen TFRN The findings of this workshop have informed the development of documents supporting the revision of the Gothenburg Protocol and provided researchers and practitioners with vital new data Bringing together a wealth of key information on the costs of ammonia abatement and the climate co benefits this monograph provides readers with deep insight into this complex issue

Ashok Kumar, Mr. Navdeep Singh, 2022-11-06 In this book we have selected the 19 research and review articles for publication. The chapters in this book reflect a wide range of fundamental and applied research in the chemical sciences, environmental science, and interdisciplinary subjects. This book is a unique collection of full research papers as well as reviews. In the 1st chapter, describes advances of aviation fuel derived from renewable sources is a DROP IN alternative for air transport as it has a similar high energy density and meets all the required fuel specifications. Major challenges faced by the industry with respect to the development of alternative aviation fuel are high quality standards, requirements, safety issues, wide range of operational conditions, and drop in kind with traditional aviation jet fuel. In the 2nd chapter, To describes significant optical features of luminescent materials have drawn immense appreciation in all walks of life including organic dyes, metal-organic frameworks, lanthanide compounds, semiconductor-based quantum dots, and carbon-based nanodots which attribute numerous applications to these Luminescent materials. Moreover, they have been proven important in various applications including gas storage and separation, heterogeneous catalysis, light harvesting, chemical sensing, bio-imaging, and drug delivery. In the 3rd chapter, describes introduction of mixed ligand dithiolate complexes of cobalt, synthesis of mixed ligand complexes of cobalt II with dithiolate, 1-methoxy carbonyl, 1-cyano ethylene, 2,2-dithiolate, and nitrogen donors. In the 4th chapter, Mixed ligand complexes of the type $Ni(L)_n$ dithio $n = 1$ or 2 , L-OPD, and various substituted pyridines, dithio Na_2S , C_6H_5CN , $COOMe$, H_2O have been synthesized and characterized. In the 5th chapter, discussed about conducting polymers, CPs are chemical compounds or mixtures of compounds composed of structural units formed during the polymerization process. The prospective uses of CPs particularly in the realm of electronic manufacturing have piqued the curiosity of researchers. In the 6th chapter, BiOCl nanomaterial have been acknowledged as potential and promising environmental remediation material because of their low costs, low toxicities, and enormous stabilities as well as resourceful photocatalytic activities of various hazardous environmental pollutants including dyes, pesticides, and several other organic pollutants etc. In the 7th chapter, discuss about polyaniline (PANI) which is reviewed as environmental remediation. In the 8th chapter, describe a the low cost activated carbon-based adsorbent derived from the fruit of Kigelia Africana (KA) was characterized for effective removal of Pb(II) from its aqueous solution and determine the rate of adsorption. In the 9th chapter, discuss about Ionic liquid which has emerged as intriguing modern material in science and technology. To better comprehend and investigate the unusual and fascinating characteristics of ionic liquids. In the 10th chapter, to prepare the nanocomposites of Titania by solution impregnation method and used as photocatalyst for the degradation of acetic acid at various factors. In the 11th chapter, discuss about health and socioeconomic conditions which are inextricably linked. A substantial beneficial influence on economic success is ensured by the general population's well health. Cardiovascular complexity is the single most serious health problem in India. Hypertension is a key risk factor for cardiovascular disease. In the 12th chapter, discuss about waste management. There is need for framing policies for effective management of waste and above all implementation of them by the authority and adherence to them by the general public In the 13th chapter highlights the potential of Hierarchical Nanostructured 3D Flowerlike BiOX X Cl Br I microsphere as a remarkable technology towards the environmental remediation processes of various hazardous and persistent environmental pollutants In the 14th chapter to prepared the nanoparticles of zirconium oxide and characterized them by the some characterization techniques In the 15th chapter discuss about waste management which involves the procedures and actions necessary to manage waste from generation to disposal This covers waste collection transportation treatment and disposal as well as waste management process monitoring and control as well as waste related legislation technology and economic processes In the 16th chapter discuss about the role of probiotic milk in human health The numerous perceived health benefits and the growing awareness about probiotics have caught the attention of the food industry Food companies are increasingly manufacturing foods with incorporated probiotic bacteria which fall under the new category of foods called Functional Foods In the 17th chapter discuss the recent trend and modification in TiO₂ nanostructured based super hydrophobic surfaces of different type of materials Further the application potential of the artificial super hydrophobic surfaces such as self cleaning water oil separation and anti fogging etc In the 18th chapter reviews the iron polyphenols interaction which cause to the colour formation during the sugar processing The chemical structure of various phenolic acid which presents in sugar cane juice are interact with the Fe III through chemical reaction or by changing conditions which results in the various colourant formation during sugar formation are described In the 19th chapter discuss about carbon footprint which is used to calculate the individual carbon emission which includes to the atmosphere every day in the recent years causes lots of carbon emission and in turn increase the global warming which is harmful to the present and future of the earth and its living beings Pollution Prevention and Abatement Handbook, 1998, 1999 Originally developed to help staff clients and consultants prepare and implement operations supported by the Bank Group this Handbook updates and replaces the Environmental Guidelines issued in 1988 and reflects changes both in technology and in pollution management policies and practices It focuses attention on the environmental and economic benefits of preventing pollution and emphasizes cleaner production and good management techniques BOOK JACKET
