The Hiding House Concept:

Handbook of Research on Methodologies for Design and Production Practices in Interior Architecture Garip, Ervin, Garip, S. Banu, 2020-11-20 Studio environments can be defined as multi dimensional integrated production spaces where basic design trainings take place and where design issues including theoretical notions such as sociological political phenomenological and other dimensions are discussed Present approaches within the literature and social media on this topic gives cause for students to evaluate their future professions over finished and pictorial products rather than ontological and processual means While there are many resources available on the present approaches of aesthetics and visuality of interior spaces there is not much research available on new design methodologies related design processes and new applied methods in interior arcitecture Based on different contexts these methods of design practice have the potential to enrich design processes and create multiple discussion platforms within project studios as well as other design media These different representations and narration methods for research in the context of interior architecture can be effectively used in design processes The Handbook of Research on Methodologies for Design and Production Practices in Interior Architecture proposes new design methodologies and related design processes and introduces new applied method approaches while presenting alternative methods that have been used within design studios in the field of interior architecture The chapters deal with four major sections the design process and interdiciplinary approaches then scenario development and content followed by material texture and atmosphere and concluding with new approaches to design While highlighting topics such as spatial perception design strategies architectural atmosphere and design thinking this book is of interest to architects interior designers practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students looking for advanced research on the new design metholodologies and processes for interior architecture

Migration, Settlement, and the Concepts of House and Home Iris Levin, 2015-11-19 How do migrants feel at home in their houses Literature on the migrant house and its role in the migrant experience of home building is inadequate This book offers a theoretical framework based on the notion of home building and the concepts of home and house embedded within it It presents innovative research on four groups of migrants who have settled in two metropolitan cities in two periods migrants from Italy migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from mainland China migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Melbourne Australia and migrants from Morocco migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from the former Soviet Union migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Tel Aviv Israel The analysis draws on qualitative data gathered from forty six in depth interviews with migrants in their home environments including extensive visual data Levin argues that the physical form of the house is meaningful in a range of diverse ways during the process of home building and that each migrant group constructs a distinct form of home building in their homes houses according to their specific circumstances of migration namely the origin country country of destination and period of migration as well as the historical economic and social contexts around migration

Production Design & the Cinematic

Home Jane Barnwell, 2022-05-10 This book uses in depth case studies to explore the significance of the design of the home on screen The chapters draw widely upon the production designer s professional perspective and particular creative point of view The case studies employ a methodology Barnwell has pioneered for the analysis of production design called Visual Concept Analysis which can be used as a key to decode the design of any given film Through the nurturing warmth of the Browns home in Paddington the ambiguous boundaries of secret service agent homes in Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy and the singleton space occupied by Bridget Jones Barnwell demonstrates that the domestic interior consistently plays a key role Whether used as a transition space an ideal a catalyst for change or a place to return to these case studies examine the pivotal nature of the home in storytelling and the production designers significance in its creation The book benefits from interviews with production designers and artwork that provides insight on the creative process Concepts of Space,

Ancient and Modern Kapila Vatsyayan, 1991 Love and Joy Linda Seed, 2022-07-29 She s jumping into a drastic change of lifestyle He s determined to help her see everything she s been missing Joy Maxwell has a life people envy An upscale Los Angeles condo designer clothes a big following on Instagram and looks other women would die for But it s not easy being in the public eye and when her career as an influencer starts to go south Joy goes north to the small coastal town of Cambria where she plans to blog about her new minimalist lifestyle hoping to parlay it into a book deal Nix Landry sees the tiny house he built with his own hands as more than a place to live it s a statement about sustainability simplicity and being present for what s important in life When Joy applies to be his tenant he s skeptical that this woman with her designer shoes and her salon hairstyle will last more than a week But the more he gets to know her the more he takes it as a challenge to show her how much more fulfilling life can be Love and Joy is a stand alone romance in Linda Seed s Otter Bluff series The Bellair

Securing the Internet of Things: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2019-09-06 The ubiquity of modern technologies has allowed for increased connectivity between people and devices across the globe This connected infrastructure of networks creates numerous opportunities for applications and uses As the applications of the internet of things continue to progress so do the security concerns for this technology The study of threat prevention in the internet of things is necessary as security breaches in this field can ruin industries and lives Securing the Internet of Things Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a vital reference source that examines recent developments and emerging trends in security and privacy for the internet of things through new models practical solutions and technological advancements related to security Highlighting a range of topics such as cloud security threat detection and open source software this multi volume book is ideally designed for engineers IT consultants ICT procurement managers network system integrators infrastructure service providers researchers academics and professionals interested in current research on security practices pertaining to the internet of things House Beautiful,1928 Architectural Engineering: New Concepts, New Methods, New Materials, New Applications Architectural Record (New York, N.Y.),1925 Re-imagining the City Somaiyeh Falahat,2013-12-09 Somaiyeh Falahat investigates the spatial and morphological logic of pre modern Middle Eastern and North African cities so called Islamic cities She bases her argument on the fact that the city and consequently its form and structure similar to other human products have deep roots in the thought structure of the people Thus to know such places properly one has to refer to this life world and use it as a structure to observe the city This approach aims at opening new levels of understanding of the city by grasping indigenous concepts and structures it puts forward claims for the possibility of a new method of analysis The author studies the historic city of Isfahan as the case study and suggests that an indigenous term Hezar Too can explain the complexity of the city which has been interpreted as labyrinthine and maze like accounting for the essence of the city and its form in an appropriate way Looking at the city from this new point of view can help in observing it in its context and subsequently in discovering its real character English House Grounds Mabel Parsons,Eugene Clute,1924 House Design, Construction and Equipment John Matthew Gries,James Ford,1934 The House Plant Expert D. G. Hessayon,1991 The House Plant Expert is one of the books in the Expert series written by the world s best selling gardening author Quite simply the best selling gardening book in the world Over a million copies have been sold in the U S and nearly 14 million worldwide According to one reviewer after the Bible the best selling reference book of all time In a basketful of countries it has taught people how to choose and care for their indoor plants Its style of dealing with each plant with drawings photographs and no nonsense text has become a legend in the publishing world If you have house plants and who doesn t you need this book Reading Du Fu Xiaofei Tian,2020-06-23 This is the first collection of essays in English contributed by well known experts of Chinese literature as well as scholars of a younger generation dedicated to the poetry of Du Fu commonly regarded as the greatest Chinese poet These essays are engaged in historically nuanced close reading of Du Fu s poems both canonical and less known from new angles and in various contexts and discuss a series of critical issues including the local and the imperial the body politic and the individual body poetry and geography perspectives on the complicated relation of religion and literature materiality and contemporary reception of Du Fu poetry and visual art and tradition and modernity Many of the poems discussed in this book were written in the backwater town of Kuizhou far from Du Fu s earlier residence in the capital city Chang an at a time when the Tang dynasty was going through devastating social and political disturbances The authors contend that Du Fu s isolation from the elite literary establishments allowed him to become a pioneer who introduced a new order to the Chinese poetic discourse However his attention to details in everyday reality his preoccupation with domestic life and the larger issues embroiled in it his humor and his ability to surprise tend to be obscured by the clich d image of the poet sage and poet historian an image this collection of essays successfully complicates The scholarship that went into this collection of essays is extremely solid and fills an important gap in the study of China s greatest poet Du Fu The convincing and compelling collection of articles from distinguished scholars rereads Du Fu from fresh and different perspectives and informs the reader about the amazing power of intertextuality Kang I Sun Chang Yale University This rich and multilayered collection of essays about Du Fu all written by major scholars presents research of the highest quality and originality that succeeds most impressively in enriching and deepening our knowledge and appreciation of this great poet This volume has the potential to engender a new stage of Du Fu studies Antje Richter University of Colorado Boulder The biblical concept of the 'Davidic Covenant' in 2 Samuel and Ezekiel and its implications for African leadership Victor Lonu Budha,2023-10-30 Scholars have offered insight into the Davidic Covenant and the future hope for Israel However their works up to this point have overlooked a detailed influence of 2 Samuel 7 on Ezekiel 34 and 37 Therefore reading the text of Ezekiel in relation to the original form of the Davidic Covenant may reveal further indications of the literary theological and conceptual influence of 2 Samuel 7 and the help it provides in understanding the function of the promised ruler in Ezekiel 34 and 37 An intertextual approach proves to be relevant to establishing this influence The intertextual approach used for the exegesis in this book establishes how biblical books are connected and proves the influence of the text of 2 Samuel on that of Ezekiel 34 and 37 The study of 2 Samuel 7 in relation to the Davidic Covenant underscores God s faithfulness and concern for his people Godly leadership is the kind of leadership that God desires for his people Looking closely at the Davidic Covenant and God s promises in Ezekiel s text we can see that they encompass important implications for African leadership Special Resource Study,
