Sino Tibetan Languages:

The Sino-Tibetan Languages Randy J. LaPolla, Graham Thurgood, 2006-05-17 There are more native speakers of Sino Tibetan languages than of any other language family in the world Records of these languages are among the oldest for any human language and the amount of active research on them both diachronic and synchronic has multiplied in the last few decades This volume includes overview articles as well as descriptions of individual languages and comments on the subgroups in which they occur In addition to a number of modern languages there are descriptions of several ancient languages

The Sino-Tibetan Languages Graham Thurgood, Randy J. LaPolla, 2016-12-08 There are more native speakers of Sino Tibetan languages than of any other language family in the world Our records of these languages are among the oldest for any human language and the amount of active research on them has multiplied in the last few decades Now in its second edition and fully updated to include new research The Sino Tibetan Languages includes overview articles on individual languages with an emphasis on the less commonly described languages as well as descriptions and comments on the subgroups in which they occur There are overviews of the whole family on genetic classification and language contact syntax and morphology and also on word order typology There are also more detailed overview articles on the phonology morphosyntax and writing system of just the Sinitic side of the family Supplementing these overviews are articles on Shanghainese Cantonese and Mandarin dialects Tibeto Burman is reviewed by genetic or geographical sub group with overview articles on some of the major groups and areas and there are also detailed descriptions of 41 individual Tibeto Burman languages written by world experts in the field Designed for students and researchers of Asian languages The Sino Tibetan Languages is a detailed overview of the field This book is invaluable to language students experts requiring concise but thorough information on related languages and researchers working in historical typological and comparative linguistics

Sino-Tibetan Paul K. Benedict, 1972-06-15 A comprehensive account of the Sino Tibetan a language stock comparable in size and diversification to Indo European and comprising Chinese Karen and over a hundred Tibetan Burman languages Dr Benedict presents a systematic analysis of the morphology and phonology of the main descendants of the stock traces their family relationships and reconstructs in outline the parent language Sino Tibetan There is a glossary of Tibeto Burman index which should prove of especial value as a working tool for scholars Although the book was first drafted many years ago Dr Benedict made extensive annotations on the original manuscript and Professor James A Matisoff added many notes on bibliography and the Burmese Lolo group of languages The scope and original theses of the work however remain unaltered and the editors present it as a major and original contribution to the study of oriental linguistics Sino-Tibetan Languages
