Sioux City, a Pictorial History Scott Sorensen, B. Paul Chicoine, 1982-01-01      Sioux City Memories, 2015      Sioux City Railroads Rudolph Daniels, 2008 Toward the end of the 19th century railroads transformed Sioux City from a western outpost to one of the fastest growing municipalities in the world Prior to the arrival of the railroads Sioux City depended on the Missouri River for transportation The Missouri however was not dependable because of flooding and droughts As an all season mode of transportation the railroads permitted the flourishing of the meatpacking industry in Sioux City In fact it was the large number of different railroad companies that made Sioux City a major agricultural center rather than just another county seat or market town Trains carried cattle and hogs to the plants and then carted away the Sioux City processed products to the nation and to the world      A Pictorial History of the Brilharts of America John A. Brillhart, 1926

Peggy Gilbert & Her All-Girl Band Jeannie Gayle Pool, 2008-02-08 In Peggy Gilbert Her All Girl Band Jeannie Gayle Pool profiles the fascinating life of this multi talented saxophone player arranger bandleader and advocate for women instrumental musicians Based on oral history interviews and Gilbert s collection of photographs newspaper clippings and other memorabilia this book includes many materials not previously available on all women bands from the 1920s 30s and 40s      A Pictorial History of the University of Iowa John C. Gerber, 2010-09-13 The founders of the new state of Iowa in 1847 waited only fifty nine days to charter a university Eight years later the first classes were held in a rented building still very much on the edge of the western frontier surrounded by prairie and pastureland It is difficult to imagine such a scene today compared to the University of Iowa s contemporary setting with its 26 000 students its 250 plus buildings huge medical complex performing arts campus and athletic facilities all clustered around the grand centerpiece of the Old Capitol First published in 1988 this gracefully written pictorial narrative deftly compresses the history of this distinguished institution into a readable and entertaining text enriched by an impressive selection of over 350 photographs gleaned from the university s archives Photos and text capture Iowa s major research accomplishments in space exploration medical research educational testing and the ground breaking advanced degree programs for creative work in all the arts as well as the many great moments in Hawkeye sports Also included is an account of the evolution of the institution itself of the significant teachers and administrators who guided the university s progress through world wars periods of intense social upheaval and the more tranquil years of strength and growth With an all new album of fifty color photos that both celebrate and define the last twenty years of the university s history the expanded paperback edition of this classic book is an enduring testament to the unique character of the University of Iowa its strong commitment to education research and the creative arts and its remarkable service to the state      Pictorial History of the World's Greatest War and New International Atlas of the World, 1919      The Pageant of America, a Pictorial History of the United States, 1927      America 1933 Michael Golay, 2016-01-12 The first account of the remarkable eighteen month journey of Lorena Hickok intimate friend of Eleanor Roosevelt throughout the country during the worst of the Great Depression bearing witness to the unprecedented ravaged During the harshest year of the Great Depression Lorena Hickok a top woman news reporter of the day and intimate friend of Eleanor Roosevelt was hired by FDR's right hand man Harry Hopkins to embark upon a grueling journey to the hardest hit areas across the country to report back about the degree of devastation Distinguished historian Michael Golay draws on a trove of original sources including moving and remarkably intimate almost daily letters between Hickok and Eleanor Roosevelt as he re creates that extraordinary journey Hickok traveled almost nonstop for eighteen months from January 1933 to August 1934 driving through hellish dust storms rebellion by coal workers in Pennsylvania and West Virginia and a near revolution by Midwest farmers A brilliant observer Hickok's searing and deeply empathetic reports to Hopkins and her letters to Mrs Roosevelt are an unparalleled record of the worst economic disaster in the history of the country Historically important they crucially influenced the scope and strategy of the Roosevelt Administration's unprecedented relief efforts America 1933 reveals Hickok's pivotal contribution to the policies of the New Deal and sheds light on her intense but ill fated relationship with Eleanor Roosevelt and the forces that inevitably came between them Sioux City's Grand Avenue Viaduct, 1936-2010

Jennifer A. Price, 2010 For almost 75 years the Grand Avenue Viaduct known today as the Gordon Drive Viaduct has been a familiar feature of Sioux City's urban landscape With the exception of bridges over the Mississippi River the Grand Avenue Viaduct is Iowa's longest grade separation as well as its longest bridge For nearly a mile from the eastern suburbs west to the central business district the viaduct carries Gordon Drive and the city route of U S 20 over the Floyd River valley which includes the remnants of the city's famed stockyards and the South Bottoms neighborhood as well as a maze of railroad tracks and the present channel of the Floyd River Constructed in 1937 and known simply as The Viaduct to local residents the massive structure is as fundamental to Sioux City as were its stockyards just a few decades ago American Patriot Robert Coram, 2007-05-03 The acclaimed author of Boyd recounts the life of a decorated U S Air Force veteran who was a prisoner of war in Vietnam During his military career Bud Day won every available combat medal escaped death on no less than seven occasions and spent 67 months as a POW in the infamous Hanoi Hilton along with John McCain Despite sustained torture Day would not break He became a hero to POWs everywhere a man who fought without pause not a prisoner of war but a prisoner at war Upon his return passed over for promotion to Brigadier General Day retired But years later with his children grown and a lifetime of service to his country behind him he would engage in another battle this one against an opponent he never had expected his own country On his side would be the hundreds of thousands of veterans who had fought for America only to be betrayed And what would happen next would make Bud Day an even greater legend Praise for American Patriot Superb Coram has researched thoroughly and written fluently and with sympathy for his subject and authentic hero Booklist Riveting A poignant and ultimately inspiring portrait Day's military service tale is wide varied fraught with drama and jaw dropping episodes James Srodes American Spectator 101 Battalion: A Stone's Throw From
