Social Formation And Symbolic Landscape:

Social Formation and Symbolic Landscape Denis E. Cosgrove, 1998 Hailed as a landmark in its field since its first publication in 1984 Denis E Cosgrove's Social Formation and Symbolic Landscape has been influential well beyond geography It has continued to spark lively debate among historians geographers art historians social theorists landscape architects and others interested in the social and cultural politics of landscape

Social Formation and Symbolic Landscape Denis Cosgrove, 1998      Symbolic Landscapes Gary Backhaus, John Murungi, 2008-11-09 Symbolic Landscapes presents a definitive collection of landscape place studies that explores symbolic cultural levels of geographical meanings Essays written by philosophers geographers architects social scientists art historians and literati bring specific modes of expertise and perspectives to this transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary study of the symbolic level human existential spatiality Placing emphasis on the pre cognitive genesis of symbolic meaning as well as embodied experiential lived geography the volume offers a fresh quasi phenomenological approach The editors articulate the epistemological doctrine that perception and imagination form a continuum in which both are always implicated as complements This approach makes a case for the interrelation of the geography of perception and the geography of imagination which means that human cultural geography offers only an abstraction if indeed an aesthetic geography is constituted merely as a sub field Human cultural geography can only approach spatial reality through recognizing the intimate interrelative dialectic between the imaginative and perceptual meanings of our landscapes place worlds This volume reinvestigates the importance of the topic of symbolism in human cultural geography landscape studies philosophy of place architecture and planning and will stand among the classics in the field

Geographical Imagination and the Authority of Images Denis E. Cosgrove, 2006 Geographical imagination and the authority of images collects three papers and an interview on the themes presented and discussed during the 2005 Hettner lectures Cosgrove examines the roles that vision and imagination have played in shaping material and represented landscapes at scales ranging from the local and regional to the global and cosmic The book presents substantive studies of cosmographic and global mapping the picturesque tradition and suburban Los Angeles and the use of aeTranspennine England as a geographical art gallery Embedded in these are theoretical and ethical reflections on the ways that we come to know the world ourselves and each other through geographical engagements especially when these are mediated through graphic images The interview locates these themes within the context of Denis Cosgrove's development as a geographer and his response to debates within the discipline about the roles of imagination culture and representation within geographies's humanities tradition Contents Peter Meusburger Hans Gebhardt Introduction Hettner Lecture 2005 in Heidelberg Denis Cosgrove Apollo's eye a cultural geography of the globe Denis Cosgrove Landscape culture and modernity Denis Cosgrove Regional art Transpennine geography remembered and exhibited Tim Freytag Heike Joens Vision and the culturalae in geography a biographical interview with Denis Cosgrove The Klaus Tschira Foundations gGmbH
