

CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE SOURCE BASED WRITING

CONSTRUCTED RESPONSE ITEMS Early American History

For each topic, students will be given a prompt, two sources, and the rubric below to guide their responses. They will use these materials to write a constructed response that aligns with the rubric's criteria. As part of the process, students must highlight and effectively incorporate evidence that supports their answers. The rubric, adopted from the Louisiana Department of Education, is versatile enough for any social studies classroom and ensures a high level of rigor that prepares students for standardized testing.

Points	Description
4	Response correctly answers all parts of the question. Response includes key concepts, ideas, and details. Response includes relevant evidence and details. Response includes a clear and concise conclusion.
3	Response correctly answers most parts of the question. Response includes key concepts, ideas, and details. Response includes relevant evidence and details. Response includes a clear and concise conclusion.
2	Response correctly answers some parts of the question. Response includes key concepts, ideas, and details. Response includes relevant evidence and details. Response includes a clear and concise conclusion.
1	Response correctly answers some parts of the question. Response includes key concepts, ideas, and details. Response includes relevant evidence and details. Response includes a clear and concise conclusion.
0	Response is blank, incomplete, too brief to evaluate, or does not address the prompt.
