and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs (P.A.T.H.S.) Daniel T.L.

SHEK,Rachel C. F. Sun,2013-06-28 This book outlines the development implementation and evaluation of a project entitled P A T H S to Adulthood A Jockey Club Youth Enhancement Scheme with P A T H S denoting Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social programmes This pioneer project was conducted in Hong Kong between 2005 and 2012 with more than 210 000 participants Its goal was to help students meet various challenges in their path to adulthood with a focus on their psychosocial competencies developmental assets and the promotion of healthy peer relationships The project was initiated by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust in collaboration with the Government s Social Welfare Department Education Bureau and five universities in Hong Kong Edited by the researchers of the project Development and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs explores the nature of positive youth development PYD the application of PYD constructs to youth programs and implementation issues Using multiple strategies the book evaluates the overall effectiveness of the P A T H S school based programme and reveals that stakeholders had positive perceptions of the project its implementers and benefits Students in the program showed better positive development and displayed lower levels of substance abuse and delinquent behaviour than students in the control schools The book also details lessons learned emergent issues future directions as well as insights into the development of positive youth development programs particularly in Chinese communities Development and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs will appeal to all educators administrators psychologists social workers and allied professionals looking to promote whole person development in their students especially those with in interest in education in China Evaluation in Child and Family Services Tiziano Vecchiato,Anthony N. Maluccio,Cinzia Canali, As child and family interventions assume greater international application it will be helpful to examine the various ways in which service innovations are being evaluated As demonstrated in the seminar from which these chapters resulted only by sharing our specific professional interests our too frequent problems in measurement our despair in implementing complicated studies and our successes can we advance the evaluation of human services and their outcomes This volume considers a variety of programs and issues in the field of child and family services While different perspectives are evident among the authors in terms of their focus and or emphasis there is common concern about the value of examining each program or service so as to maximize its impact as well as its potential for dissemination Intervention research should spur and motivate cross national efforts not only among researchers but also among social workers and other practitioners from diverse professions engaged in the delivery of human services Such collaboration would contribute to the ultimate goals of achieving greater clarity about the specifics of best practices in child and family services protocols for assessing outcomes and ways of improving service delivery How then can researchers and policymakers in diverse settings within diverse countries improve practice and service delivery on behalf of children and families What particular program findings can be generalized to improve services How can we share and implement new solutions The contributions to this volume address such questions from varying international perspectives Contributors provide answers and generate discussion points for consideration by practitioners as well as researchers The book is a must for social work parishioners in areas involving the delivery of goods as well as services Tiziano Vecchiato is scientific director of the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Anthony N Maluccio is professor of social work at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Cinzia Canali is research associate at the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy
