The Societal Foundations of National Competitiveness Michael J. Mazarr, 2022-06-21 Nations rise and fall succeed or fail in rivalries and enjoy stability or descend into chaos because of a complex web of factors that affect competitive advantage One critical component is the package of essential social characteristics of a nation The ultimate story of the Cold War is that the United States was simply a more competitive society than the Soviet Union more energetic more vibrant more innovative more productive more legitimate Through analysis of comparative studies of historical eras and trends historical case studies and the findings of issue specific empirical research the report explores how seven characteristics of a society determine its competitive standing and distinguish dynamic and competitively successful nations If the history surveyed in this report provides an accurate guide to the future the fate of the United States in today's rivalries will not be determined solely or even in significant degree by the numbers of its weapons or amounts of defense spending or how many proxy wars it wins but by the basic characteristics of its society The author applies the seven leading characteristics that affect national standing to the United States to create a snapshot of where the country stands That application provides some reason for optimism The United States continues to reflect many of these characteristics and the overall synergistic engine more than any other large country in the world However multiple trends are working to weaken traditional U S advantages Several such as the corruption of the national information space pose acute risks to the long term dynamism and competitiveness of the nation raising the worrying prospect that the United States has begun to display classic patterns of a major power on the far side of its dynamic and vital curve Societal Foundations of Education National Learning Corporation, 1989 Societal Foundations of Education National Learning Corporation, 1967 The Europa International Foundation Directory 2023 Europa Publications, 2023-07-27 This fully revised directory of international foundations trusts charitable and grantmaking NGOs and other similar non profit institutions provides a comprehensive picture of foundation activity on a worldwide scale Now in its 32nd edition The Europa International Foundation Directory includes Information on some 2 700 organizations organized by country or territory including details of funding priorities and projects geographical area of activity principal staff and contact details Details of co ordinating bodies and centres that assist foundations grantmaking organizations and other NGOs Bibliography Comprehensive index section This new edition has been revised and expanded to include the most comprehensive and up to date information on this growing sector National Foundation for Social Sciences United States. Subcommittee on Representation of Citizen Interests, 1974 Risk Society and School Educational Policy Grant Rodwell, 2018-09-14 Risk Society and School Educational Policy explores the impact of risk society on policy in the US UK and Australia through both practical and theoretical perspectives The book develops an in depth understanding of risk society itself and guides the reader in applying this knowledge to the problem of how this impacts policy and practice in school education Drawing on work by Ulrich Beck and Anthony Giddens Rodwell explores the development of risk society as a field of interest discussing its history contemporary significance and links with neoliberalism school education and both mainstream and social media He also examines its impact on government policies and the practical implications of how this impacts the educational experiences of children around the globe today A book for policy professionals researchers academics and postgraduate students interested in Education Studies Theory and Policy and International and Comparative Education Risk Society and School Educational Policy is the first international academic monograph published in the field

Justice Reinvestment David Brown,Chris Cunneen,Melanie Schwartz,Julie Stubbs,Courtney Young,2016-01-26 Justice reinvestment was introduced as a response to mass incarceration and racial disparity in the United States in 2003 This book examines justice reinvestment from its origins its potential as a mechanism for winding back imprisonment rates and its portability to Australia the United Kingdom and beyond The authors analyze the principles and processes of justice reinvestment including the early neighborhood focus on million dollar blocks They further scrutinize the claims of evidence based and data driven policy which have been used in the practical implementation strategies featured in bipartisan legislative criminal justice system reforms This book takes a comparative approach to justice reinvestment by examining the differences in political legal and cultural contexts between the United States and Australia in particular It argues for a community driven approach originating in vulnerable Indigenous communities with high imprisonment rates as part of a more general movement for Indigenous democracy While supporting a social justice approach the book confronts significantly the problematic features of the politics of locality and community the process of criminal justice policy transfer and rationalist conceptions of policy It will be essential reading for scholars students and practitioners of criminal justice and criminal law

Immigration and Perceptions of National Political Systems in Europe Lauren McLaren,2015-09-10 Immigration has become one of the most pressing political issues of the modern day and public opinion polls indicate that it has been of public concern for some time This book analyses the impact of immigration on perceptions of national political systems in Europe and contends that public concern about immigration is undermining trust in national political institutions and elites as well as satisfaction with the way democracy is working Immigration and Perceptions of National Political Systems in Europe contends that immigration presents more substantial challenges to some national identity constructions and that while national identity in general can help to bolster support for national political systems those who emphasize lengthy ties to the country are likely to be less positive about their national political systems particularly when these allow for relatively easy immigrant incorporation This book also includes an analysis of the impact of concern about immigration on the British political system and shows that while concern about immigration appears to have been fairly high since the 1960s it is only in since 1997 that such concern has come to translate into negative perceptions of the British political system 1975 National Science Foundation Authorization, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Development of ..., 93-2, March 12, 13, 14, 15, 19, 1974 United States. Commemorating the life and work of Dr John Bennett his lifelong contribution to Early Childhood Education and Care and his ongoing influence on policy research and practice in this field In Search of Social Justice is a tribute to a preeminent scholar and his vision for an equitable and high quality start for all children Working tirelessly to raise the profile of Early Childhood Education and Care and prioritise the rights and well being of children and families in national and international policy John Bennet played an invaluable role in improving the position of young children globally In Search of Social Justice takes John s legacy as a starting point for critical examination of the changing discourse on Early Childhood Education and argues for the continued relevance of his approach Drawing on personal reflections vignettes and testimonials from eminent authors who shared their professional lives with him the book foregrounds John s insistence that we must continue to shape policy and provision through inquiry high quality evidence passion and persistence improving the early experiences of all young children As much a celebration of John s work and achievements as a call to collective action towards achieving his vision for equitable quality early childhood education and care this is a fascinating read for students researchers and activists in the field of Early Childhood Education and Care Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1974 Education and Social Dynamics Arnd-Michael Nohl,R. Nazlı Somel,2015-08-27 Education and Social Dynamics offers a new approach to analyzing curriculum change by investigating the entanglement of education and society in markedly heterogeneous Turkey which has recently witnessed nation wide curriculum reforms While the new curriculum has attempted to homogenize all Turkish primary schools since 2005 Nohl and Somel drawing on a theoretical differentiation of social entities reveal how subsequent curricular practices have had to account for the diversity of milieus and organizations in the nation s educational sector and how inequality and competition run rampant in the standardization efforts Using expert interviews group discussions and other empirical data that compare instructional practices within five distinct schools the book represents a breakthrough in our understanding of developments in Turkey and their significance for extant theories of curriculum development and reform worldwide By linking specific case study material from Turkey to intensifying international concerns it provides an important and relevant global commentary      Reaching and Investing in Children at the Margins National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Health and Medicine Division, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Board on Global Health, Forum on Investing in Young Children Globally, 2016-06-17 The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals for 2015-2030 strive for a world that is just equitable and inclusive in which everyone receives care education and opportunities to thrive Yet many children are living on the margins of society face multiple disadvantages and are excluded from full participation in all that life has to offer To examine the science economics and politics of investing in the health education nutrition and social protection of children at the margins the National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine held a workshop in Prague Czech Republic in November 2015 Held in partnership with the Open Society Foundations and the International Step by Step Association the workshop convened a diverse group of stakeholders from around the world for 2 days of discussion This report summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop      Children's Lives in an Era of Children's Rights Afua Twum-Danso Imoh, Nicola Ansell, 2014-01-03 The Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC which was adopted unanimously by the United Nations General Assembly in 1989 marked a turning point in the perception of children in international law and policy Although it was hoped that the Convention would have a significant and positive impact on the lives of all children this has not happened in many parts of the world This edited volume based on empirical research and Non Governmental Organisation project data explores the progress of the Convention on the Rights of the Child and to a lesser extent the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child in nine African countries in the 25 years since it was adopted by the UN General Assembly The book considers the implementation of the Convention both in terms of policy and practice and its impact on the lived experiences of children in societies across the continent focusing on specific themes such as HIV AIDS education and disability child labour witchcraft stigmatisation street children parent child relationships and child participation The book breaks new ground in blending legal and social perspectives of the experiences of children and identifies concrete ways forward for the better implementation of the CRC treaty in the various political contexts that exist in Africa
