Blum, 2002 In Stoning the Keepers at the Gate police psychologist Lawrence N Blum Ph D looks at the role of law enforcement in modern times and argues that while bad cops need to be rooted out blanket condemnation of the police threatens the very liberties that make such condemnation possible as well as the safety of the American public in their homes and lives Blum argues that the enormous stresses officers experience from violent physical attack to unrewarded or misunderstood acts of heroism require special understanding an understanding that is often missing from police departments themselves Blum provides a unique insight into the dynamics practices and activities within police agencies that influence police officers actions and that often hide the real sources of police behaviors that are thought of as faulty insensitive or inappropriate A passionate call not only for understanding but a reappraisal of whose actions are scrutinized within and outside of police agencies police accountability and the nature of policing itself in the twenty first century Stoning the Keepers at the Gate is a dynamic and fascinating analysis of the role of law enforcement today
