preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary Virginal desire according to Beattie need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women s desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality
