Storytelling In Alcoholics Anonymous A Rhetorical Analysis:

Storytelling in Alcoholics Anonymous George H. Jensen, 2000 When drinkers attend Alcoholics Anonymous and their spouses attend Al Anon says Jensen English Southwest Missouri State U dramatic changes occur that cannot be accounted for simply by the absence of alcohol He explains how being a member can contribute to the formation of a new identity through the transformative effect of storytelling within its structure Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Annual Review of Addictions and Offender Counseling, Volume III Pamela S. Lassiter, Trevor J. Buser, 2017-02-21 The Annual Review of Addictions and Offender Counseling Best Practices Volume III is the third volume in a series of peer reviewed edited books sponsored by the International Association of Addiction and Offender Counselors IAAOC a division of the American Counseling Association ACA Continuing the mission of the first two volumes this volume provides a forum for publications addressing a broad array of topics in the field of addictions and offender counseling Experts in the profession present innovative strategies and recommendations for best practices in drug education intervention strategies multicultural considerations and counselor education Integrating Spirituality and Religion Into Counseling Craig S. Cashwell, J. Scott Young, 2014-12-01 In this book experts in the field discuss how spiritual and religious issues can be successfully integrated into counseling in a manner that is respectful of client beliefs and practices Designed as an introductory text for counselors in training and clinicians it describes the knowledge base and skills necessary to effectively engage clients in an exploration of their spiritual and religious lives to further the therapeutic process Through an examination of the 2009 ASERVIC Competencies for Addressing Spiritual and Religious Issues in Counseling and the use of evidence based tools and techniques this book will guide you in providing services to clients presenting with these deeply sensitive and personal issues Numerous strategies for clinical application are offered throughout the book and new chapters on mindfulness ritual 12 step spirituality prayer and feminine spirituality enhance application to practice Requests for digital versions from the ACA can be found on wiley com To request print copies please visit the ACA website here <https://imis.counseling.org/store/detail.aspx?id=78161> Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org The Storied Church Matthew Gorkos, 2021-09-07 Matthew Gorkos begins The Storied Church with this compelling statement I believe in the church in the power of faithful people serving a good and gracious God and I believe in the power of a good story Moreover I believe as this book will argue that church and story harnessed together could be an even more powerful force for goodness in our world Neuroscientists anthropologists archeologists and psychologists all agree Story is how our brains and our communities make sense of things Storytelling helps us cope with change and loss Storytelling helps us transmit lessons and life skills to the next generation As human beings it seems we can't do without story This book indeed this whole idea of story centered church renewal was born of a suspicion that the restorative transformative life giving function that stories have for us as individuals may serve communities of faithful people as well If stories help us survive as human creatures why can't they help churches survive The problem that story centered renewal seeks to remedy has only become more prevalent and urgent in the age of Covid 19 Our churches need hope now more than ever Writing from a pastor's perspective Gorkos hopes to encourage and empower other pastors and lay leaders with both the hope and the tools they need to effect revitalizing change in their faith communities Each chapter includes questions for reflection to help readers listen to and tell the stories that will lead to renewal and transformation

Anyone Who Has a View F.H. van Eemeren, J. Anthony Blair, Charles A. Willard, A. Francisca Snoeck Henkemans, 2012-12-06 This volume of the Argumentation Library contains a collection of twenty six theoretical contributions to the study of argumentation Together they provide an overview of recent developments in the theory of argumentation which does justice to the theoretical variety in the field In Anyone Who Has a View the subject of argumentation is approached from different angles Both the formal and informal logical approaches and the rhetorical and communicative approaches are represented in various ways We are convinced that the collection of essays as a whole will be of interest not only to those engaged directly in the study of argumentation but also to scholars from a variety of disciplines who are interested in the recent developments in this field The book opens with an essay by the informal logician Robert C Pinto For all the differences between them James B Freeman Harvey Siegel Ralph H Johnson Hans V Hansen and J Anthony Blair are also prominent members of that movement Some informal logicians either eschew or simply do not use formal methods in their approach to argumentation while others such as David Hitchcock use both formal and informal methods Erik C W Krabbe is a logician who proudly defends a formal dialectical approach to argumentation Daniel H Cohen Frans H van Eemeren Peter Houtlosser Fred J Kauffeld C Scott Jacobs Christian Kock Christian Plantin Sorin Stati Chris Reed Douglas N

A History of the Book in America David Paul Nord, Joan Shelley Rubin, Michael Schudson, 2015-12-01 The fifth volume of A History of the Book in America addresses the economic social and cultural shifts affecting print culture from World War II to the present During this period factors such as the expansion of government the growth of higher education the climate of the Cold War globalization and the development of multimedia and digital technologies influenced the patterns of consolidation and diversification established earlier The thirty three contributors to the volume explore the evolution of the publishing industry and the business of bookselling The histories of government publishing law and policy the periodical press literary criticism and reading in settings such as schools libraries book clubs self help programs and collectors societies receive imaginative scrutiny as well The Enduring Book demonstrates that the corporate consolidations of the last half century have left space for the independent publisher that multiplicity continues to define American print culture and that even in the digital age the book endures Contributors David Abrahamson Northwestern University James L Baughman University of Wisconsin Madison Kenneth Cmiel d 2006 James Danky University of Wisconsin Madison Robert DeMaria Jr Vassar College Donald A Downs University of Wisconsin Madison Robert W Frase d 2003 Paul C Gutjahr Indiana University David D Hall Harvard Divinity School John B Hench American Antiquarian Society
