Stout Fellow A Guide Through Nero Wolfes World:

Stout Fellow O. McBride, 2003-05-28 Are you one of the millions who has spent many pleasant hours reading about Nero Wolfe converting the calories from his gourmet dining albeit grudgingly into mental energy to solve a murder If you have traipsed through that morass of neuroses idiosyncrasies and obsessive compulsive behaviors you must have questions Did you know that while Wolfe usually tilts the scales near one seventh of a ton he may once have weighed less than his svelte associate Archie Goodwin Or how many times the unbreakable rules of the house are broken Or why Fritz speaks French although he s not from France Or how many bullet and knife wounds Wolfe carries on his normally sedentary carcass Or what Inspector Cramer s first name is Or how the characters evolved over the four decades of their existence This book will provide you with the answers to those questions and a thousand others I hope you find it satisfactory Icons of Mystery

Hauhart, 2024 Significant Food is a collaborative work of textual analysis and criticism that chews on the role and prominence of food in American literature The volume offers close readings of many well known and some less well known examples of American writing as studied through the food culture sensibilities of a well stocked cupboard of contributors who offer their analyses for public consumption Editors Jeff Birkenstein and Robert C Hauhart find that literary criticism has focused on the role food plays in literary production to a greater extent than recognized at first glance and that its role has become increasingly common only in the last two decades Still while there is critical commentary regarding authors use of food across the expanse of American literature there has been a lack of a unifying critical theories to guide these analyses Birkenstein and Hauhart offer the theory of significant food a method that asks literary critics to evaluate and assess the extent nature and role that food plays in literary production When food and food moments are used intensively and significantly within the drama memoir poem novel short story or other writing then one can say that it has achieved a status that makes it indispensable to the work at hand
