Strabo Geography S 15 16:

Strabo's Geography Strabo, 2024-06-11 Written in the first century AD Strabo's Geographica tells us just about everything one could know about the ancient world of his day We find instructions on how to tame elephants information on the production of asphalt how saffron is collected the treatment of the aged the practice of yoga the lineage of obscure eastern dynasties religious festivals prostitution volcanic activity to name but a few of the topics his great work expounds upon From his home in what is now Turkey Strabo travelled around the Mediterranean describing the locations he visited and those he passed through Some of the information in his great work is derived from his own travels but most of it is the product of his reading and research So it is not merely a travelogue or guidebook but rather an intellectual journey through ancient places and the literature of antiquity which implicitly asks Who are we and Where do we come from His answer involves a detailed description of the first century world he thought his readers should know In this new modern translation of the complete work translator Sarah Pothecary renders Strabo's Geographica as an invaluable resource for anyone interested in how the world today came into being The main obstacle for readers has always been how to approach what at first sight is a daunting work of 300 000 words Even when translated from ancient Greek into English Strabo's narrative has come across as sprawling and difficult to navigate Ancient names for modern places used by Strabo sound naturally unfamiliar to contemporary readers making it seem as if the world he describes is remote from our own in terms of place as well as time Pothecary's translation addresses these problems by orientating the reader within the twenty first century world As she progresses through the narrative the reader will be able to locate where he is in the modern world as well as in the ancient world By doing so this book mimics what Strabo was doing two thousand years ago relating the rapidly changing present of his readers to their own ancient past The questions of identity and origin that underlie his work are as relevant today as two thousand years ago It is time Pothecary argues the modern world got to know Strabo better Within Judaism?

Interpretive Trajectories in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam from the First to the Twenty-First Century Anders Runesson, Karin Hedner Zetterholm, 2023-11-27 This book charts the shifting boundaries of Judaism from antiquity to the modern period in order to bring clarity to what scholars mean when they claim that ancient texts or groups are within Judaism as well as exploring how rabbinic Jews Christians and Muslims have negotiated and renegotiated what Judaism is and is not in order to form their own identities Belief in Jesus as the Messiah was seen as part of first century Judaism but by the fourth or fifth century the boundaries had shifted and adherence to Jesus came to be seen as outside of Judaism Resituating New Testament texts within first or second century Judaism is an historical exercise that may broaden our view of what Judaism looked like in the early centuries CE but normatively these texts remain within Christianity because of their reception history The historical within Judaism perspective however has the potential to challenge and reshape the theology of contemporary Christianity while at the same time the long held consensus that belief in Jesus cannot belong within

Judaism is again challenged by the modern Messianic Jewish movement Babatha's Orchard Philip Francis Esler, 2017 This work considers the story behind papyri discovered in 1960 in the Cave of Letters by the Dead Sea The archive contains various contracts and deeds entered into by a Jewish woman named Babatha daughter of a land owner named Shim on at the end of the first century New Frontiers in Archaeology: Proceedings of the Cambridge Annual Student Archaeology Conference 2019 Kyra Kaercher, Monique Arntz, Nancy Bomentre, Xosé L. Hermoso-Buxán, Kevin Kay, Sabrina Ki, Ruairidh Macleod, Helena Muñoz-Mojado, Lucy Timbrell, Izzy Wisher, 2020-11-19 The theme for the Cambridge Annual Student Archaeology Conference CASA 2019 was New Frontiers in Archaeology and this volume presents papers from a wide range of topics such as new geographical areas of research using museum collections and legacy data new ways to teach archaeology and new scientific or theoretic paradigms Invisible Archaeologies: Hidden Aspects of Daily Life in Ancient Egypt and Nubia Loretta Kilroe, 2019-11-30 The eight papers presented here stem from a conference held in Oxford in 2017 which brought together international early career researchers applying novel archaeological and anthropological methods to overlooked subjects in ancient Egypt and Nubia The diverse topics covered include women prisoners entangled communities and funerary displays South Arabian Long-Distance Trade in Antiquity George Hatke, Ronald Ruzicka, 2021-02-01 South Arabia is one of the least known parts of the Near East It is primarily due to its remoteness coupled with the difficulty of access that South Arabia remains so under explored In pre Islamic times however it was well connected to the rest of the world Due to its location at the crossroads of caravan and maritime routes pre Islamic South Arabia linked the Near East with Africa and the Mediterranean with India The region is unique in that it has a written history extending as far back as the early first millennium BCE a far longer history than that of any other part of the Arabian Peninsula The papers collected in this volume make a number of important contributions to the study of the history and languages of ancient South Arabia as well as the history of South Arabian studies and will be of interest to scholars and laypeople alike Geographers of the Ancient Greek World: Volume 1 D. Graham J. Shipley, 2024-04-18 Ancient Greek geographical writing is represented not just by the surviving works of the well known authors Strabo Pausanias and Ptolemy but also by many other texts dating from the Archaic to the Late Antique period Most of these texts are however hard for non specialists to find and many have never been translated into English This volume the work of an international team of experts presents the most important thirty six texts in new accurate translations In addition there are explanatory notes and authoritative introductions to each text which offer a new understanding of the individual writings and demonstrate their importance no longer marginal but in the mainstream of Greek literature and science The book includes twenty eight newly drawn maps images of the medieval manuscripts in which most of these works survive and a full Introduction providing a comprehensive survey of the field of Greek and Roman geography The People of the Parables R. Jew-hatred in the Second Temple Period Benedikt Josef Collinet, Frank Ueberschaer, 2025-06-30 The experience of violence and verbal harassment was and still is an oppressive reality for Jews This volume focusses on Jew hatred and how it was encountered in the Second Temple period It includes contributions on very different literature from the Hellenistic and Roman times from various proveniences from Jewish literature in Greek language e g Septuagint and Philo to the works of Greek and Roman authors Thus prejudices resentments and violence against Jews will be addressed and analyzed as well as how the Jewish community opposed it both pragmatically and intellectually The historically oriented contributions are complemented by an essay in which past and present experiences are related to each other
