How to successfully port a number out from Straight Talk

I've decided to put this info in its own standalone post on this sub since I posted this info as a comment months ago and still to this day I get people messaging me saying it worked and helped them tremendously.

If you are trying to port a number out from Straight Talk and the port request from your new carrier is sitting unacknowledged and Straight Talk's regular support people are giving you the run around, try calling 1-866-806-1840 and when it asks for an extension/case number enter 332264.

This will put you in touch with someone from Straight Talk's "port team" who, after verifying your account information, can release your number out to your new carrier immediately.

For some backstory, a few months ago I was trying to port two numbers out from Straight Talk to US Mobile. I made sure to contact Straight Talk before I initiated anything to get my account number and PIN. I provided all the info to US Mobile and they initiated a port request, which sat unacknowledged by Straight Talk for days and days.

No matter who I talked to at Straight Talk, they'd always tell me they couldn't see any port requests pending in their system for my numbers. They would tell me over and over that the issue must be on US Mobile's end, that they either didn't submit the port request correctly, or that my account number or PIN was entered wrong. They also would say that their system is set up to automatically release numbers when receiving a port request with the correct info (all of which I
