Stranded Death Valley 1850

Pasquale De Marco

Stranded Death Valley 1850:

Grit and Gold Jean Johnson, 2018-11-01 No other Western settlement story is more famous than the Donner Party's ill-fated journey through the Sierra Nevada Mountains. But a few years later and several hundred miles south another group faced a similar situation just as perilous. Scrupulously researched and documented Grit and Gold tells the story of the Death Valley Jayhawkers of 1849 and the young men who traveled by wagon and foot from Iowa to the California gold rush. The Jayhawkers' journey took them through the then uncharted and unnamed hottest, driest, lowest spot in the continent now aptly known as Death Valley. After leaving Salt Lake City to break a road south to the Pacific Coast that would eliminate crossing the snowy Sierra Nevada, the party veered off the Old Spanish Trail in southern Utah to follow a mountaineer's map portraying a bogus trail that claimed to cut months and hundreds of miles off their route to the gold country. With winter coming, however, they found themselves hopelessly lost in the mountains and dry valleys of southern Nevada and California. Abandoning everything but the shirts on their backs and the few oxen that became their pitiful meals, they turned their dreams of gold to hopes of survival. Utilizing William Lorton's 1849 diary of the trek from Illinois to southern Utah, the reminiscences of the Jayhawkers themselves, the keen memory of famed pioneer William Lewis Manly, and the almost daily diary of Sheldon Young Johnson, paints a lively but accurate portrait of guts, grit, and determination. Hiking Southern California Roddy Scheer, 2019-10-01 Boasting a mild climate, incredible diversity, and thousands of miles of hiking trails, Southern California offers a gem for every hiker. Hiking Southern California is your ticket to rewarding adventures in the backcountry of the southern third of the Golden State, including Death Valley National Park, Mojave National Preserve, the San Gabriel Mountains, and Joshua Tree National Park. This new edition of the classic guidebook features detailed descriptions of more than 50 classic hikes with accurate and up-to-date trail maps and all the information you need for planning enjoyable outings year-round. This book describes short, leisurely strolls and demanding excursions of several days. The hikes follow routes varying from gentle, well-graded trails to rugged cross-country scrambles, including old favorites known to many and obscure routes known only to a few. Surveying the most awe-inspiring scenery in the region, Hiking Southern California will satisfy both beginning and veteran hikers. Deadly Pursuit in the Desert Heat Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-11 In the scorching embrace of Death Valley, a seasoned detective embarks on a harrowing quest for justice in Deadly Pursuit in the Desert Heat, a gripping and thought-provoking exploration of the dark side of human nature and the resilience of the human spirit. As a young woman vanishes without a trace, the detective is drawn into a sinister web of hidden motives and long-buried secrets. The unforgiving landscape becomes a battleground for a deadly game of cat and mouse, where the hunter and the hunted become entangled in a chilling dance. Driven by an unwavering determination to uncover the truth, the detective delves into the heart of darkness, confronting the horrors that lurk within the human soul. Haunted by the weight of his responsibility, he grapples with the fragility of life and the darkness that threatens to consume him. Through a series of gripping encounters and shocking revelations the detective's pursuit of justice becomes a quest for redemption As he navigates the treacherous terrain of Death Valley both physical and psychological he discovers that even in the face of unimaginable evil the human spirit has the capacity to triumph Pasquale De Marco's masterful storytelling and vivid prose paint a haunting and unforgettable portrait of a world teetering on the brink of despair Deadly Pursuit in the Desert Heat is a gripping and thought provoking exploration of the darkest corners of the human psyche and the indomitable spirit that resides within us all Uncover the chilling secrets of Death Valley and the relentless pursuit of a seasoned detective in Deadly Pursuit in the Desert Heat A gripping tale of justice redemption and the enduring power of hope in the face of darkness If you like this book write a review on google books The Writers Directory, 2013 Popular Series Fiction for K-6 Readers

Rebecca L. Thomas, Catherine Barr, 2004 Because of their popularity books in series are great vehicles for fostering literacy among all types of readers who are almost always adamant about reading every title in the series in series order Yet traditional information sources on children's and YA literature include very little about series fiction so librarians often have difficulty managing this literature This guide will be a rich resource and time saver for librarians who work with children It introduces users to the best and most popular fiction series of today covering more than 1 000 series with over 10 000 titles appropriate for elementary readers Annotations also indicate series and titles accepted by some of the popular electronic reading programs e.g Accelerated Reading Reading First A numbered list of titles in the series follows Death Valley Gold Rush Ted Faye, 2022-10 From the mid 19th century to the 1930s no place in America was more feared or mysterious than the stretch of desert on the California Nevada border known as Death Valley While today Death Valley National Park is seen as a place of natural beauty and scenic wonders there were once rumors of vaporous gases so toxic that birds flying overhead would drop dead instantly One of the first Americans to encounter this dreaded land was William Lewis Manly who left his Wisconsin home for California's 1849 Gold Rush and who heroically saved those lost pioneers who would give Death Valley its name Other pioneers in the early 20th century were Frank Shorty Harris who made Death Valley's biggest gold strike the Hoyt brothers who in 1908 struck it rich in a place called Skidoo and in the 1920s a con man named C C Julian who used the valley's reputation to scam naive investors There was a time when the entire country seemed to be consumed with news and tales of the Death Valley Gold Rush Ted Faye is a documentary filmmaker exhibit curator and historical researcher on stories and people of the Death Valley region Faye has worked with tourism boards on both the state and local levels to develop materials that tell the stories of their communities He was a historian at US Borax and many images from this book are from the Borax collection at Death Valley National Park Legendary Locals of the Santa Clarita Valley California Alan Pollack, Kim Stephens, E. J. Stephens, 2012 Cradled among chaparral covered canyons an hour north of downtown Los Angeles is a fascinating place called the Santa Clarita Valley The history of the valley has significantly shaped the cultural development of Southern California for centuries But while events are often credited with creating its history the true portrait of the valley is painted using the palette of personalities who left their indelible mark on the landscape. It is these stories of cowboys, Native Americans, outlaws, farmers, shepherds, soldiers, miners, range warriors, ranchers, saloon keepers, stagecoach drivers, railroaders, town drunks, teetotalers, engineers, land speculators, explorers, missionaries, actors, and common folk that make the history of the Santa Clarita Valley so compelling. Legendary Locals of the Santa Clarita Valley is a pictorial journey through time, telling tales of the colorful cast of characters found sprinkled throughout the region's past and the legendary locals who still make history today. Santa Cruz County History Journal, 1998. Heritage of the Valley, George William Beattie, Helen Pruitt Beattie, 1951. Ghost Town Living, Brent Underwood, 2024-03-19. NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER.

A long abandoned silver mine for sale sounded like an adventure too great to pass up, but it turned into much more: a calling, a community of millions, and hard-earned lessons about chasing impractical dreams. Inspiring and meditative, the story of man vs. nature and man vs. himself. Ryan Holiday, 1. New York Times bestselling author of The Obstacle is the Way. The siren song of Cerro Gordo, a desolate ghost town perched high above Death Valley, has seduced thousands since the 1800s, but few fell harder for it than Brent Underwood, who moved there in March of 2020 only to be immediately snowed in and trapped for weeks. It had once been the largest silver mine in California. Over 500 million worth of ore was pulled from the miles of tunnels below the town. Butch Cassidy, Mark Twain, and other infamous characters of the American West were rumored to have stayed there. Newspapers reported a murder a week. But that was over 150 years ago. Underwood bet his life savings and his life on this majestic hardscrabble town that had broken its fair share of ambitious men and women. What followed were fires, floods, earthquakes, and perhaps the strangest fame. Ghost Town Living tells the story of a man against the elements, a forgotten historic place against the modern world, and a dream against all odds, one that has captured millions of followers around the world. He came looking for a challenge different from the traditional 9-5 job but discovered something much more fulfilling: an undertaking that would call on all of himself and push him beyond what he knew he was capable of. In fact, to bring this abandoned town back to life, Brent had to learn a wealth of new self-sufficiency and problem-solving skills from many generous mentors. Ghost Town Living is a thrilling read, but it's also a call to action to question our too-practical lives and instead seek adventure, build something original, redefine work, and embrace the unknown. It shows what it means to dedicate your life to something, to take a mighty swing at a crazy idea, and like the cardsharps who once haunted Cerro Gordo, go all in.
