Strange Defeat A Statement Of Evidence Written In 194:

The Marine Corps Gazette, 1982 The War Guilt Problem and the Ligue des droits de l'homme, 1914-1944 Norman Ingram, 2019-01-31 The War Guilt Problem and the Ligue des droits de l'homme is a significant new volume from Norman Ingram addressing the history of the Ligue des droits de l'homme LDH an organisation founded in 1898 at the height of the Dreyfus Affair and which lay at the very centre of French Republican politics in the era of the two world wars Ingram posits that the Ligue's inability to resolve the question of war guilt from the Great War was what led to its decline by 1937 well before the Nazi invasion of May 1940 As well as developing our understanding of how the issue of war origins and war guilt transfixed the LDH from 1914 down to the Second World War this volume also explores the aetiology of French pacifism expanding on the differences between French and Anglo American pacifism It argues that from 1916 onwards one can see a principled dissent from the Union sacrée war effort that occurred within mainstream French Republicanism and not on the syndicalist or anarchist fringes Based on substantial research in a large number of French archives primarily in the papers of the LDH which were repatriated to France from the former Soviet Union in late 2001 but also on considerable new research in the German archives the book proposes a new explanatory model to help us understand some of the choices made in Vichy France moving beyond the usual triptych of collaboration resistance or accommodation

The Mobilization of Intellect Martha Hanna, 1996 When President Poincaré in the early days of World War I called on the French intellectual elite to contribute to the war effort with their pens and their words the union sacrée of scholars and writers including Henri Bergson Pierre Duhem Ernest Lavisse and Emile Durkheim united French intellect against German Kultur

Organizing Interests in Western Europe Suzanne Berger, 1983-04-29 The chapters in this volume reconsider fundamental premises about state and society in advanced capitalist countries That social scientists in different disciplines of varying methodological and political persuasions should have found it useful to collaborate in such an undertaking is testimony to the profound social economic and political shocks experienced by all advanced capitalist nations since to late 1960s The energy crisis the end of rapid economic growth inflation high unemployment and rising social conflict challenge conventional conceptions about the functioning of industrial societies and their future course Social science theories have been unable to illuminate these realities

Making History Richard Cohen, 2022-04-19 A supremely entertaining The New Yorker exploration of who gets to record the world's history from Julius Caesar to William Shakespeare to Ken Burns and how their biases influence our understanding about the past There are many stories we can spin about previous ages but which accounts get told And by whom Is there even such a thing as objective history In this witty wise and elegant The Spectator book Richard Cohen reveals how professional historians and other equally significant witnesses such as the writers of the Bible novelists and political propagandists influence what becomes the accepted record Cohen argues for example that some historians are practitioners of Bad History and twist reality to glorify themselves or their country Scholarly lively quotable up to date and fun Hilary Mantel author of the bestselling Thomas Cromwell trilogy Making History investigates the published works and private utterances of our greatest chroniclers to discover the agendas that informed their and our views of the world From the origins of history writing when such an activity itself seemed revolutionary through to television and the digital age Cohen brings captivating figures to vivid light from Thucydides and Tacitus to Voltaire and Gibbon Winston Churchill and Henry Louis Gates Rich in complex truths and surprising anecdotes the result is a revealing exploration of both the aims and art of history making one that will lead us to rethink how we learn about our past and about ourselves Strange Defeat Gerard Hopkins,1949 Resistance and Liberation Douglas Porch,2024-01-25 In Resistance and Liberation Douglas Porch continues his epic history of France at war Emerging from the debacle of 1940 France faced the quandary of how to rebuild military power protect the empire and resuscitate its global influence While Charles de Gaulle rejected the armistice and launched his offshore crusade to reclaim French honor within the Allied camp defeatists at Vichy embraced cooperation with the victorious Axis The book charts the emerging dynamics of la France libre and the Alliance Vichy collaboration and the swelling resistance to the Axis occupation From the campaigns in Tunisia and Italy to Liberation Douglas Porch traces how de Gaulle sought to forge a French army and prevent civil war He captures the experiences of ordinary French men and women caught up in war and defeat the choices they made the trials they endured and how this has shaped France's memory of those traumatic years Cumulative Index to English Translations, 1948-1968 ,1973 Les Français face à la défaite,1984 Artists Into Frenchmen Linda Harper Stratford,2001
