The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang John Christopher Hamm, 2019-08-27 Xiang Kairan who wrote under the pen name the Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang is remembered as the father of modern Chinese martial arts fiction one of the most distinctive forms of twentieth century Chinese culture and the inspiration for China's globally popular martial arts cinema In this book John Christopher Hamm shows how Xiang Kairan's work and career offer a new lens on the transformations of fiction and popular culture in early twentieth century China The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang situates Xiang Kairan's career in the larger contexts of Republican era China's publishing industry literary debates and political and social history At a time when writers associated with the New Culture movement promoted an aggressively modernizing vision of literature Xiang Kairan consciously cultivated his debt to homegrown narrative traditions Through careful readings of Xiang Kairan's work Hamm demonstrates that his writings far from being the formally fossilized and ideologically regressive relics their critics denounced represent a creative engagement with contemporary social and political currents and the demands and possibilities of an emerging cultural marketplace Hamm takes martial arts fiction beyond the confines of genre studies to situate it within a broader reexamination of Chinese literary modernity The first monograph on Xiang Kairan's fiction in any language The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang rewrites the history of early twentieth century Chinese literature from the standpoints of genre fiction and commercial publishing

Noir and Blanchot William S. Allen, 2020-01-23 In dark or desperate times the artwork is placed in a difficult position Optimism seems naive while pessimism is no better During some of the most demanding years of the 20th century two distinctive bodies of work sought to respond to this problem the writings of Maurice Blanchot and American film noir Both were seeking not only to respond to the times but also to critically reflect them but both were often criticised for their own darkness Understanding how this darkness became the means of responding to the darkness of the times is the focus of Noir and Blanchot which examines key films from the period including Double Indemnity and Vertigo alongside Blanchot's writings particularly his 1948 narrative Death Sentence What emerges from this investigation is the complex manner in which these works disrupt the experience of time and the event and in doing so expose an entirely different mode of material expression

Sociological Visions Kai Erikson, 1997 All of the essays are by authors whose sociological vision has had a profound impact on our culture

Reading Seminar XX Suzanne Barnard, Bruce Fink, 2012-02-01 This collection offers the first sustained in depth commentary on Seminar XX Encore considered the cornerstone of Lacan's work on the themes of sexual difference knowledge jouissance and love Although Seminar XX was originally popularized as Lacan's treatise on feminine sexuality these essays by some of today's foremost Lacanian scholars go beyond feminine sexuality to address Lacan's significant intertwining concern with the rupture between reality and the real produced by modern science and the implications of this rupture for subjectivity, knowledge, jouissance and the body. The essays clarify basic concepts but for readers already familiar with Lacan they also offer sophisticated workings through of the more challenging and obscure arguments in Encore both by tracing their historical development across Lacan's oeuvre and by demonstrating their relation to particular philosophical, theological, mathematical and scientific concepts. They cover much of the terrain necessary for understanding sexual difference not in terms of chromosomes, body parts, choice of sexual partner or varieties of sexual practice but in terms of one's position vis-à-vis the Other and the kind of jouissance one is able to obtain. In so doing they make significant interventions in the debates regarding sex, gender and sexuality in feminist theory, philosophy, queer theory and cultural studies.

Signs and Wonders in Britain's Age of Revolution Abigail Hartman, Timothy G. Fehler, 2018-11-13 Signs and Wonders in Britain's Age of Revolution is an original collection of primary sources from the era encompassing the political, religious and social tumult of the English Civil War. With a focus on Britain in the seventeenth century and covering topics such as astrology, scurrilous pamphlet wars, witch hunts and trials and the execution of King Charles I, Signs and Wonders investigates published strange and true accounts that existed alongside more traditionally studied historical events. Including fully edited and annotated texts of carefully selected popular pamphlets, the sourcebook is accompanied by guided introductory essays for each of the thematically divided chapters. With more than two dozen woodcut images, Signs and Wonders enables students to pursue in depth primary source analysis of this rich period of history when the supernatural was woven into the lives of those participating in or viewing the tumultuous political and religious events of the mid 17th century. In this collection of popular pamphlets, battles in the sky, witches, monstrous births and apparitions stand side by side with the major political and religious events that make up the standard histories of the era, allowing a fuller perspective on these early modern narratives and their interpretation and exploitation by the heated presses of 17th century Britain. Signs and Wonders in Britain's Age of Revolution is essential reading for all students of early modern Britain.
