Strange True Stories Of Louisiana:

Strange True Stories of Louisiana George Cable,1994-05-30 At the turn of the century people outside of New Orleans viewed the city through the eyes of journalist and author George Washington Cable His writings portrayed a tropical European city nestled on the banks of an American river still teeming with the literary artistic and social developments of a late Renaissance In his own romance with Louisiana Cable came upon many stories written by its denizens While Cable assisted some authors in finding places to publish their works there were many stories he kept for himself Much of this collection can now be found in Strange True Stories of Louisiana They are mine by right of discovery writes Cable From various necessities of the case I am sometimes the story teller and sometimes in the reader s interest have to abridge but I add no fact and trim naught of value away Here are no unconfessed restorations not one In time place circumstance in every essential feature I give them as I got them strange stories that truly happened all partly some wholly in Louisiana Strange True Stories of Louisiana is Cable s compilation of seven unusual factual accounts of life and history in the area They include tales of two French sisters who made the dangerous trek to the unsettled lands of North Louisiana at the beginning of the nineteenth century Focusing on New Orleans Cable adds the story of The Haunted House in Royal Street which spurs the imaginations of ghost hunters more than a century after its original writing There is also a diary account in its first published form of a Union woman trapped behind the battle lines during the Civil War

CABLE,2021-08-20 True stories are not often good art The relations and experiences of real men and women rarely fall in such symmetrical order as to make an artistic whole Until they have had such treatment as we give stone in the quarry or gems in the rough they seldom group themselves with that harmony of values and brilliant unity of interest that result when art comes in not so much to transcend nature as to make nature transcend herself
