Monographic Series Library of Congress, Enduring Polygamy Bruce Whitehouse, 2023-04-14 Why hasn't polygamous marriage died out in African cities as experts once expected it would Enduring Polygamy considers this question in one of Africa's fastest growing cities Bamako the capital of Mali where one in four wives is in a polygamous marriage Using polygamy as a lens through which to survey sweeping changes in urban life it offers ethnographic and demographic insights into the customs gender norms and hierarchies kinship structures and laws affecting marriage and situates polygamy within structures of inequality that shape marital options especially for young Malian women Through an approach of cultural relativism the book offers an open minded but unflinching perspective on a contested form of marriage Without shying away from questions of patriarchy and women's oppression it presents polygamy from the everyday vantage points of Bamako residents themselves allowing readers to make informed judgments about it and to appreciate the full spectrum of human cultural diversity Memories of the Slave Trade Rosalind Shaw, 2020-04-04 How is the slave trade remembered in West Africa In a work that challenges recurring claims that Africans felt and still feel no sense of moral responsibility concerning the sale of slaves Rosalind Shaw traces memories of the slave trade in Temne speaking communities in Sierra Leone While the slave trading past is rarely remembered in explicit verbal accounts it is often made vividly present in such forms as rogue spirits ritual specialists visions and the imagery of divination techniques Drawing on extensive fieldwork and archival research Shaw argues that memories of the slave trade have shaped and been reshaped by experiences of colonialism postcolonialism and the country's ten year rebel war Thus money and commodities for instance are often linked to an invisible city of witches whose affluence was built on the theft of human lives These ritual and visionary memories make hitherto invisible realities manifest forming a prism through which past and present mutually configure each other
