Testimony Crises Of Witnessing In Literature Psychoanalysis And History:

Testimony Shoshana Felman, Dori Laub, 1992 First Published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Testimony Shoshana Felman, Dori Laub, 1992 In this unique collection Yale literary critic Shoshana Felman and psychoanalyst Dori Laub examine the nature and function of memory and the act of witnessing both in their general relation to the acts of writing and reading and in their particular relation to the Holocaust Moving from the literary to the visual from the artistic to the autobiographical and from the psychoanalytic to the historical the book defines for the first time the trauma of the Holocaust as a radical crisis of witnessing the unprecedented historical occurrence of an event eliminating its own witness Through the alternation of a literary and clinical perspective the authors focus on the henceforth modified relation between knowledge and event literature and evidence speech and survival witnessing and ethics

Trauma and Visuality in Modernity Lisa Saltzman, Eric M. Rosenberg, 2006 Essays exploring the role of trauma in modern art Memory Susannah Radstone, Bill Schwarz, 2010 These essays survey the histories the theories and the fault lines that compose the field of memory research Drawing on the advances in the sciences and in the humanities they address the question of how memory works highlighting transactions between the interiority of subjective memory and the larger fields of public or collective memory The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012 First Published in 2012 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness Jane Barter, 2025-06-30 Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness focuses on witnessing in the aftermath of political atrocity or genocide It offers a diachronic study of the relationship between theological forms of witnessing within Jewish and Christian traditions and public forms of witnessing in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book explores the ways in which various witnesses to political atrocity and their mediators tacitly drew on religious themes of salvation to make sense of their suffering It investigates survivor testimony and the use made of it through scholarly interpretations of testimony within the Hebrew Bible New Testament and theological and philosophical traditions within Judaism and Christianity The chapters move from a consideration of the early post Shoah writings of Paul Celan and Primo Levi through to a discussion of the Truth and Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada The author makes the case for a weak messianism or remnant witnessing as an antidote to overdetermined and politicized uses made of survivor testimonies This book makes a valuable contribution to the work of theopolitics which claims that theology despite its persistent misuse can serve a constructive and critical force within public life albeit in a chastened key Testimony/Bearing Witness Sybille Krämer, Sigrid Weigel, 2017-08-23 What is the epistemological value of testimony What role does language images and memory play in its construction What is the relationship between the person who attests and those who listen Is bearing witness a concept that is exclusively based in interpersonal relations Or are there other modes of communicating or mediating to constitute a constellation of testimony Testimony Bearing Witness establishes a dialogue between the different approaches to testimony in epistemology historiography law art media studies and psychiatry With examples including the Holocaust the Khmer Rouge Killing Fields and the Armenian genocide the volume discusses the chances and limits of communicating epistemological and ethical philosophical and cultural historical past and present perspectives on the phenomenon and concept of bearing witness

An Aesthetics of Morality John Krapp, 2002 Focusing on instances of moral pedagogy in novels by Thomas Mann Albert Camus Joseph Conrad and Fyodor Dostoevsky he suggests that literature uses an aesthetic portrayal of personal relations to introduce scenes of moral tension that illustrate the way ethical claims are made and validated

BOOK JACKET Italian Experiences of Trauma through Film and Media Alberto Baracco, Rosario Pollicino, 2022-03-17 This volume offers new approaches to considering Italy's traumatic experiences through a wide array of media including film documentaries docufiction websites YouTube videos advertisements newspapers and literature that have not yet been fully analyzed It looks at the trauma inflicted on Italians not simply as national or cultural traumas but rather as the creation identification of subnational and transnational communities shaped by these trauma cases The term subnational or transnational community is used mostly in reference to human beings as they form those communities however they are also connected to a specific place namely Italy In addition whereas things cannot become traumatized this book also considers living things such as the environment and the nature which may create further traumas for people

Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War, 2016-06-10 Through chapters dedicated to specific writers and texts Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War is a collection of essays examining literary responses to the Great War particularly the confrontation of two distinct languages One of these reflects nineteenth century ideals of war as a noble sacrifice the other portrays the hopeless brutal reality of the trenches The ultimate aim of this volume is to convey and reinforce the notion that no explicit literary language can ever be regarded as the definitive language of the Great War nor can it ever hope to represent this conflict in its entirety The collection also uncovers how memory constantly develops triggering distinct and even contradictory responses from those involved in the complex process of remembering
