David Goodway

The Left World War II Selections From The Anarchist Journal War Commentary 1939-1943:

Anarchist Seeds beneath the Snow David Goodway, 2011-12-12 From William Morris to Oscar Wilde to George Orwell left libertarian thought has long been an important but neglected part of British cultural and political history In Anarchist Seeds beneath the Snow David Goodway seeks to recover and revitalize that indigenous anarchist tradition This book succeeds as simultaneously a cultural history of left libertarian thought in Britain and a demonstration of the applicability of that history to current politics Goodway argues that a recovered anarchist tradition could and should be a touchstone for contemporary political radicals Moving seamlessly from Aldous Huxley and Colin Ward to the war in Iraq this challenging volume will energize leftist movements throughout the world Warfare State David Edgerton, 2005-12-08 A challenge to the central theme of the existing histories of twentieth century Britain that the British state was a welfare state this book argues that it was also a warfare state which supported a powerful armaments industry This insight implies major revisions to our understanding of twentieth century British history from appeasement to wartime industrial and economic policy and the place of science and technology in government David Edgerton also shows how British intellectuals came to think of the state in terms of welfare and decline and includes a devastating analysis of C P Snow's two cultures This groundbreaking book offers a new post welfarist and post declinist account of Britain and an original analysis of the relations of science technology industry and the military It will be essential reading for those working on the history and historiography of twentieth century Britain the historical sociology of war and the history of science and technology Books in Print , 2003-09 Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1996 Rivista storica dell'anarchismo , 2004 "Ja, ich kämpfte" Werner Portmann, Siegbert Wolf, 2006
