The Letters of James, Peter, John, & Jude Douglas Jacoby, 2006 Life to the Full Isn't that a line borrowed from the gospel of John So why make it the subtitle of the book Let me explain Several words appear over and over again in the general letters and life is one of them These men did not write to impress the scholars They did not write to enhance their resumes They wrote because they had found life and wanted pass it on Of course it is not just mastering seven epistles that yields the abundant life The entire word of God comes into play Yet the life described and guaranteed in these dynamic and timeless letters is the very life of Jesus Christ And because he lives forever according to Hebrews 13:8 today we too can enjoy life to the full
