A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose,Paul Tiessen,1987-01-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works

The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling,2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story The Life & Letters of Lady Dorothy Nevill Ralph Nevill, 1919
