The Life And Times Of The 2cv:

The Life & Times of the 2CV Bob MacQueen, Julian McNamara, 1982-01-01 Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick, 2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick's study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France's former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity A Life Awheel Richard Skelton, Wilberforce de Forte, 2016 Born in Shropshire soon after the end of the First World War venerable motoring writer W de Forte has driven everything from his grandfather's first Daimler to modern day supercars ridden everything from vertiginous Victorian penny farthings to high velocity twenty first century superbikes travelled everywhere from the permafrost of the Arctic Circle to the baking sands of the Baja Peninsula and met everyone from Tazio Nuvolari to Valentino Rossi W de Forte enjoyed an eventful career as a top level journalist spanning 75 years during which time he tested many thousands of cars and reported on countless automotive events around the world This made him uniquely qualified to comment on all aspects of classic and vintage motoring and motorcycling Relatively undimmed by age and age even in his 90s de Forte had no plans to retire but in early 2011 a high speed prang while testing a wayward Rudge Ulster at a racing circuit in Belgium brought him up with a jolt both literally and metaphorically After recuperating in hospital he settled down to write his long awaited and much requested autobiography This unique and insightful book is the result Packed with

A Vehicle for Change Éamon Ó Cofaigh,2022-05-13 An Open Access edition of this book will be available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Since its invention the automobile has been systematically consumed to become part of the fabric of twentieth and twenty first century society its impact and perception making the car an accurate gauge of changing cultural norms and values As it grew in popularity the automobile conditioned the very texture of modern life and the particularly car centred society of contemporary France is an especially apt locus for examination The ubiquity of the automobile across all social strata provides us with a defined lens through which to examine the evolution of French society in the modern and post modern eras Taking the Second World War as a pivotal moment in recent French history this book demonstrates how the automobile was both consumed and fetishized in distinct ways before and after this conflict The ways in which society evolved from the pre to the post war period allow us to view French culture through the prism of the automobile as it embodied technological and social progress in twentieth century France The present volume seeks to explore and interrogate the processes of representation and mediation inherent in the evolving patterns of automobile consumption and their subsequent impacts on local and national identity framed by a detailed case study centred on France from the late nineteenth century to the oil crisis of the early 1970s
