A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing appearance with a gradient from a darker red at the center to a lighter, almost white glow at the edges.

The Light Of Early Italian Painting:

The Light of Early Italian Painting Paul Hills,1990-01-01 This book will appeal not only to all students of Italian Renaissance painting but also to everyone interested in representational painting in general for it offers a new perspective on the appreciation of works of art Book-review Hayden B. J. Maginnis,1989 A Discerning Eye: Essays on Early Italian Painting , Early Italian Painting Joseph Archer Crowe,Giovanni Battista Cavalcaselle,Anna Jameson,2023-12-28 Oscillating between the majesty of the Greco Byzantine tradition and the modernity predicted by Giotto Early Italian Painting addresses the first important aesthetic movement that would lead to the Renaissance the Italian Primitives Trying new mediums and techniques these revolutionary artists no longer painted frescos on walls but created the first mobile paintings on wooden panels The faces of the figures were painted to shock the spectator in order to emphasise the divinity of the character being represented The bright gold leafed backgrounds were used to highlight the godliness of the subject The elegance of both line and colour were combined to reinforce specific symbolic choices Ultimately the Early Italian artists wished to make the invisible visible In this magnificent book the authors emphasise the importance that the rivalry between the Sienese and Florentine schools played in the evolution of art history The reader will discover how the sacred began to take a more human form through these forgotten masterworks opening a discrete but definitive door through the use of anthropomorphism a technique that would be cherished by the Renaissance A Discerning Eye Diane Leach, Memoires of the Early Italian Painters, and of the Progress of Painting in Italy Mrs. Jameson (Anna),1880 Early Italian Painting Edward B. Garrison,1984 Edward Garrison s 1949 index on Romanesque Italian panel painting set the standard His four volume work 1953 1962 is a significant research contribution to Italian medieval painting 11th 13th centuries These two volumes collect his post 1945 articles supplementing earlier works and updating the Index of Italian Romanesque Pane

Vision, Reflection, and Desire in Western Painting David Summers,2015-12-01 Spanning more than 2 500 years in the history of art Vision Reflection and Desire in Western Painting demonstrates how the rise and diffusion of the science of optics in ancient Greece and the Mediterranean world correlated to pictorial illusion in the development of Western painting from Hellenistic Greece to the present Using examples from the late Middle Ages and the Renaissance David Summers argues that scene painting architectural backdrops and shadow painting in which forms are modeled or shown as if in relation to a source of light not only evolved in close association with geometric optics toward the end of the fifth century B C E but also contributed substantially to the foundations of the new science The spread of understanding of how light is transmitted reflected and refracted is evident in the works of artists such as Brunelleschi van Eyck Alberti and Leonardo The interplay between optics and painting that influenced the course of Western art Summers says persisted as a framework for the realism of Caravaggio Rembrandt and Goya and continues today in modern photography and film Shades of Meaning: Shadows in Medieval Manuscript Illumination Dominique DeLuca,2025-03-27 Are there shadows in medieval art Studies on the role of shadows in art history have either glanced over or ignored the medieval period yet people of the Middle Ages certainly saw and thought about shadows and recorded their ideas about these phenomena in texts and images This book examines references to shadows in science religion and folklore of the Middle Ages Through the lens of fifteenth century manuscript painting it investigates visual metaphorical and supernatural shadows in art to discover what shadows meant to the medieval viewer Painted Palaces: The Rise of Secular Art in Early Renaissance Italy ,2009 Even many Renaissance specialists believe that little secular painting survives before the late fifteenth century and its appearance becomes a further argument for the secularizing of art This book asks how history changes when a longer record of secular art is explored It is the first study in any language of the decoration of Italian palaces and homes between 1300 and the mid Quattrocento and it argues that early secular painting was crucial to the development of modern ideas of art Of the cycles discussed some have been studied and published but most are essentially unknown A first aim is to enrich our understanding of the early Renaissance by introducing a whole corpus of secular painting that has been too long overlooked Yet Painted palaces is not a study of iconography In examining the prehistory of painted rooms like Mantegna s Camera Picta the larger goal is to rethink the history of early Renaissance art
