The Leatherman:

The Old Leather Man Dan W. DeLuca, 2013-09-01 In 1883 wearing a sixty pound suit sewn from leather boot tops a wanderer known only as the Leather Man began to walk a 365 mile loop between the Connecticut and Hudson Rivers that he would complete every 34 days for almost six years His circuit took him through at least 41 towns in southwestern Connecticut and southeastern New York sleeping in caves accepting food from townspeople and speaking only in grunts and gestures along the way What remains of the mysterious Leather Man today are the news clippings and photographs taken by the first hand witnesses of this captivating individual The Old Leather Man gathers the best of the early newspaper accounts of the Leather Man and includes maps of his route historic photographs of his shelters the houses he was known to stop at along his way and of the Leather Man himself This history tracks the footsteps of the Leather Man and unravels the myths surrounding the man who made Connecticut's caves his home A Driftless Connecticut Series Book funded by the Beatrice Fox Auerbach Foundation Fund at the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving Weird U.S. Mark Moran, Mark Sceurman, 2009-05 Covering all 50 states Weird U S takes an unconventional look at the oddities outcasts and just plain strange things to see or do in America The Masterbrand Mandate Lynn B. facilitated far greater access to it He uses both professional and amateur examples to explore how gay pornography has become part of a wider cultural context in which modern masculinities have become saturated by their constantly evolving status and function in popular culture

The Leatherman Kristian J. Kuhn, 2016-01-05 The Leatherman ca 1839 1889 was a peculiar vagabond who traveled a circuit between the Connecticut River and the Hudson River roughly from 1856 to 1889 His background is little known All that is recorded appears in a few newspaper clippings he was fluent in French spoke broken English but often grunted at those he encountered On his person at the time of his death was a French prayer book The Leatherman walked a 365 mile route that took approximately a month in western Connecticut and eastern New York He lived in rock shelters or Leatherman Caves Along his 365 mile loop he would stop at towns to procure his food and supplies The locals in these towns nicknamed him the Leatherman for his attire which was completely made of leather everything from his hat to his shoes Some of the local newspapers from the time recorded that he was exact in his rounds so some of the townsfolk would have food ready for him which was often left outside for him on doorsteps and porches No matter the climate or season the Leatherman donned his adornments In times of cold he would heat his rock shelter with the wood he piled there for such an occasion Records indicate that the Connecticut Humane Society had him arrested and hospitalized after many became concerned of a sore on his lip Legend has it that he escaped from the hospital to rejoin his journey Nobody knows why the Leatherman did this but I think that he did so because he was love stricken After losing the love of his life Margaret Laron he embarked upon this journey These poems are what I surmise his meditations to be his prayers his musings

Veteran wildlife officer Bob Lee takes readers deep into the days and nights of Florida game wardens in Bad Guys Bullets and Boat Chases. Some people might think that all these officers do is check fishing licenses but this book tells a very different story: one of shoot outs, survival, rescue and powerboat chases. Tracking black market gator poachers jumping through truck windows shredding boat propellers on underwater logs, trapping airboats in wild hog muck, ferrying crates of baby sea turtles, hunting for missing persons in remote areas, getting stuck under a 500 pound all terrain vehicle at the bottom of a sinkhole, these are just some of the situations game wardens find themselves in. And beyond the action and excitement, the highs and lows of a wildlife officer's job would test the mental limits of even the bravest adventurer. In these stories, a rookie game warden works to rescue survivors after a jumbo jet crashes in a swamp, an experienced trapper leads a challenging search for a rogue gator after a tragic attack, and a dedicated lieutenant helps a deer poacher turn his life around. From Live Oak to the Everglades, from the cattle ranches west of Lake Okeechobee to the inshore fishing grounds of Pine Island, these amazing experiences span the state. Discover the excitement, dangers and disasters that game wardens face every day on the job.

Rushes John Rechy, 2018-11-20. A tour de force novel from the groundbreaking author of City of Night and one of the premier chroniclers of gay life in America. Los Angeles Times: John Rechy takes us inside a leather and Western bar located near the deserted waterfront of a large American city. This is a sexual battlefield, a world of trucks, piers and warehouses depicted in Rechy's eloquent, convincing, basically unsparing prose. Herbert Gold: The bar regulars are on a ceaseless search for compatible love. The occasional customer hopes for a quick sexual fix. Female and transvestite hookers work the dark streets outside. A couple seeks a voyeuristic experience. And one young man ventures out for the first time. During the course of a single evening, we get to know them all and watch as the night descends into the depths of a sexual underworld where danger and play transform into quasi religious rites that end in ritual sacrifice.
